PVDA Year End High Score Awards

Qualification for the PVDA Year End High Score Awards ends on October 31, 2012. To qualify for an award, a horse/rider team must meet showing requirements listed in the 2012 PVDA Year-End High Score Awards Information, Application, and Instructions posted on the PVDA web site at www.pvda.org. The rider or an immediate family member (parent or sibling) must also volunteer at least 8 hours for a PVDA activity during the current show year. Show results and volunteer hours are being tabulated by the PVDA High Score Committee; however, to ensure your information has been accurately received and recorded, it is highly recommended that you submit the application and supporting documents, as described in the 2012 PVDA Year-End High Score Awards Information, Application, and Instructions, which must be received by the committee on or before October 31, 2012. If an application is not received, the recorded scores and volunteer hours will be used and cannot be changed.

This is the time of year of planning and awards receiving. Have you submitted your scores for your Year End Awards? All it takes is to send them in to highscores@pvda.org, along with your proof of one day of volunteering. All the instructions are in the PVDA Schooling Show Omnibus. And, have I mentioned volunteering before? The benefit of volunteering is that you get your awards, plus you network, and you meet so many new friends! We are quite an interesting group of people from all walks of life, devoting hours and countless dollars to our passion of horses and dressage. Let’s all unite and be friends!

If you really want to have a good time, with good food, this is a reminder that our PVDA Annual Awards Banquet will be held in January 2013. Usually, you expect it in November, but this time the Board decided to give everyone a chance to finish up November activities and move the dinner to January when things are more settled down. Did you know that our normal attendance for the dinner is usually just about 100 members? How about making a point to join the crowd this year? We would love to have you. Please find your reservation form here in the newsletter or on www.pvda.org.

Here’s some interesting news: PVDA has gone high tech. We now have a Chief Technology Officer! This position was voted on by the Board and filled by our wonderful, patient and lovable Almon Packard, who has helped with all our computer needs. He will provide PVDA assistance with computers, tablets, phones, software and networks. He is doing all of this on a volunteer basis, so thank you Allie!

For 2013, the time to plan is now. If you have a favorite show or are able to offer a show facility or clinic venue, let us know! Our Schooling Show Chairperson for 2013 will be Tedi Lesniewski; she will arrange all of the shows and would love to have your help. It’s a huge undertaking, one of the biggest responsibilities in PVDA. Thanks for stepping up Tedi! Thanks to Aviva Nebesky for her work in 2012. Volunteer one day a year! Contact me anytime at 703-771-3231.

The Clarksville Chapter is "cooking up" great activities for PVDA members. In August and September we had "Yoga for Equestrians" as our "appetizer." Thanks to Peace of Mind Dressage and Jackie Sicoli, and Betsy Mayotte who brought mats, handouts, and other equipment to Linda and Wil Speer’s Stonebrook Farm so we could loosen up and relax.

Our "first course" includes six teams that we plan to send to the Chapter Challenge on November 4! Liz Erwin and Sam Smith are preparing their Pax de Deux and we have four ladies preparing their quadrille.

For the "second course," we will have a full-day clinic on December 2 with USDF-certified instructor Becky Langwost-Barlow at Stonebrook Farm. See the ad in this issue for more information and please come and join us!

Our "main dish" will be a Winter Show Series with shows on December 16, January 13, and February 17 (with a makeup date of March 9). More information on the judges and details coming next month.

"Side dishes" in the works are a trail ride at Deanna Beal’s farm and a Spring Clinic. And for "dessert?" Come to the Christmas Party at the December 16 show!

Meet the 2013 Board of Directors

This year there are 11 candidates for the 2013 PVDA Board of Directors. Candidate biographies are listed below. The 2013 Board will take office at the December 2012 PVDA Board meeting.

Deanna Beal, OTR/L, was a member of the PVDA Board in 2008 and 2009. Deanna is a graduate of Towson University with a BA in Occupational Therapy, and a graduate of Western Michigan University with a graduate certificate in Hippotherapy (therapy with the help of the horse). She is a licensed and practicing Occupational Therapist, a PATH (Professional Association of Therapeutic Horsemens) Registered Instructor, and an AHA (American Hippotherapy Association) registered therapist. Deanna has been married to Tim for 33 years and has 2 daughters. Tim and Deanna live on their small farm in Finksburg along with 3 horses, 2 dogs, and 2 cats.

Kate Burgy has been a PVDA member since 1997 and a PVDA Board member since 2010. As a board member she has served on the Education, Sponsorship, Newsletter, and Nominating Committees. After a several year hiatus from showing as a Jr/YR, Kate is turning her attention to showing her schoolmaster and moving her young horse up the levels as an Adult Amateur. A former “4-H”er and UMD equestrian club instructor, she has also been a working student for several area dressage trainers, breeding farms, and vets. She currently works as a geologist for the Maryland Geological Survey to support her expensive horse hobby.

Carolyn Del Grosso has been a PVDA member for more than 20 years. As a Board member, she has served on the Recognized Show Advisory, Schooling Show and Chapter Committees. She has chaired the Education Committee and has also been the Secretary and Treasurer of PVDA. Carolyn, a USDF bronze, silver and gold medalist, has been the Co-Chair of PVDA’s Ride for Life for several years and she looks forward to continuing her service on the Board.

Rebekah Lusk has been on the PVDA Board since 2011 and has served as Chairman since December 2011. She serves as the PVDA’s legal council and chairs the Governance Committee. In her professional life, she is an attorney with Thienel Law Firm, LLC and also owns and operates a property management company and a horse boarding and training facility, Windy Oak Farm, LLC. Rebekah received her BA from the University of Chicago and her JD from The Catholic University of America. Rebekah grew up in Montgomery County and started riding at age 7. She has evented through Training Level and started focusing exclusively on dressage a few years ago. Rebekah lives on her farm in Union Bridge, Maryland with her husband, two dogs, five cats, and the horses.

Mary Sue McCarthy a current Board Member co-chairs the Chapters Committee, and serves on the Education and Newsletter committees. She has contributed to PVDA as Show Manager for Loch Moy, PVDA rep on the Maryland Horse Council, marketing and media relations support for Ride for Life, and show scribe, scorer, ring steward and competitor. She is a PATH certified riding instructor with MD Therapeutic Riding, and past Board Member of the Baltimore Project to Save the Arabber Ponies. As Director of Partnerships for Baltimore Recreation and Parks she was instrumental in starting a dialogue with the City about an urban riding program. Mary Sue manages her own mediation and group facilitation business and is a Masters Degree Candidate in Counseling at McDaniel College. After obtaining her graduate counselor status in 2013 she is considering working in Equine Assisted Psychotherapy.

Jocelyn Pearson has been a member of PVDA since 1973. She attended the Horsemasters course that year and learned about PVDA at the Potomac Horse Center. During her time on the PVDA Board she has been the Volunteer Coordinator, on the Education committee and is currently the News Editor for The PVDA Newsletter. She enjoys riding, training her five horses at her farm in Leesburg, attending educational events and helping people new to dressage and riding. Jocelyn is retired from the U.S. Secret Service, where she was an award-winning K-9 dog handler trained in explosive detection and attack work. Jocelyn is a USDF “L” Graduate with an active schooling show schedule.

Jaclyn Sicoli actively supports dressage training, education and community outreach. As a PVDA board member and Education Committee Chair, Jaclyn leads educational program planning and budgeting. Together with other board members and volunteers Jaclyn has developed educational articles, materials, and events. Jaclyn hopes to continue to direct programming and expand the breadth of dressage/equine knowledge in the region. Jaclyn’s interest in dressage and horses comes from a lifelong passion and career as a trainer, instructor, and author. As owner of Peace Of Mind Dressage, Jaclyn manages a diverse group of clients and is involved with all aspects of the industry. Jaclyn believes that our dressage journeys help to balance ourselves and our lives. Jaclyn is a USDF Bronze and Silver Medalist and USDF “L” Graduate with Distinction. Jaclyn has a BS in Biochemistry and is an avid yogi. She currently lives in Baltimore with her husband and pets.
Linda Speer has been an active PVDA member since 1980, currently serving her 26th term on the PVDA Board chairing the Junior/Young Rider committee, the Awards committee and Special Events. She has organized many activities including the very successful USDF Region I Junior/Young Rider Team Championships as well as numerous clinics. Linda also managed several licensed competitions, the PVDA Chapter Challenge Competition and organizes the PVDA booth at the annual Horse Expo at the Timonium Fairgrounds every January.

Betty Thorpe served on the PVDA board from 1994 to 1996 as the Volunteer Coordinator, and from 2002 to 2005 as Editor of the PVDA newsletter. She continues to contribute articles to the newsletter. She was a delegate to the USDF annual meeting in 2002, 2004, 2005, 2008, 2011 and serves on the Licensed Show committee. She was Vice President in 2008 and 2009, but the biggest challenge of all was serving as PVDA president in 2006-07 and 2010-11.

Michele Wellman has been a PVDA board member for 3 years, serving as Chairperson in 2011. Michele has also volunteered at numerous dressage shows and horse trials over the years and has managed PVDA schooling and licensed shows. She manages and coordinates the Ride for Life Committee leading up to the Ride for Life licensed show while also chairing the Dancing Horse Challenge evening performance. She hosts two PVDA schooling shows per year at her family farm, By Chance. Michele and her mom have owned and operated By Chance Farm in Union Bridge since 2002. Like many PVDA members, Michelle holds a full time job that facilitates her horse habit and "on the side" she helps run the business.

Deanna Williford like many 7 year old girls was bitten by the "horse crazy bug" and (finally!) got her first horse at 16, showing Western and English for a few years before a short hiatus while she started her career at Maryland School for the Deaf. In 1980, Deanna began the current chapter of horse ownership which encompassed showing hunter jumpers, having her own farm and horse business for 12 years, retraining OTTBs, and coming into dressage through the back door of eventing with MCTA. Currently, she owns two Thoroughbreds, Lincoln and Ocean, and has enjoyed being a PVDA member for the last 9 years. Because so many volunteered so that she could have fun showing and eventing, Deanna feels her volunteering at PVDA shows has been a way to could "give back" to the Maryland horse industry. She would consider it an honor to serve on the PVDA Board.

PVDA Sponsored Clinic with Vitor Silva
October 20 & 21, 2012

By Chance Farm, 9205 Bessie Clement Rd., Union Bridge, MD 21791

Vitor's training and teaching is grounded in his philosophy that the best teachers are the horses. Whether from in-hand work, undersaddle or on long lines, Vitor teaches his students that while masters or trainers can share their knowledge and explain the technical aspects of riding, each rider must open themselves to feel the horse’s movements, responses and needs. Ultimately, Vitor strives to develop this intuitive feeling in his students so that harmony between horse and rider can be achieved. (courtesy Sons of the Wind.)

For more information about Sons of the Wind, visit www.sonsofthewindfarm.com.

Equine Imaging &
Ground Force Reaction Seminar

Frederick Holiday Inn • 5400 Holiday Dr.

Presenters: Dr. Jessica Morgan & Dallas Morgan, CJF, Dip.WCF
owners of Morgan Equine Veterinary & Farrier Hospital, Locke, NY

Dr. Morgan was the first woman in the world to pass the International Society of Equine Locomotor Pathology examination under the guidance of Jean-Marie Denoix. The International Society of Equine Locomotor Pathology is a comprehensive program of advanced education in the field of equine lamenesses and osteoarticular, musculotendinous and nervous pathology, covering all parts of the locomotor system of the horse. She has prepared original material that translates that information to Farriers and is bridging the gap between Farriers and Veterinarians by helping Farriers understand anatomy, diagnostic imaging and how it applies to them, resulting in unparalleled service and commitment to the horse.

The Morgans’ combined knowledge and expertise in equine lameness diagnostics, locomotion and farriery provide an in depth clinic that has something for every equine professional and horse owner. For more information, see their website www.morganequine.com

PVDA Fall Licensed Show at Loch Moy

By Betty Thorpe

It was a hot sticky day at Loch Moy, but thankfully there was good cloud cover. Some horses at all levels were struggling with the heat, but there were some sparkling rides too. One of the happiest winners on the grounds was Katherine Nelson riding her Hanoverian gelding Beloved MRF in Prix St. Georges with 66.58%. “The score was a personal best by 4 percentage points!” said a beaming Katherine. “I’m very excited.” She said Beloved had been going well at home, but she did worry about the half pirouettes. “I never know if he’s going to stop dead. He was good in the warm up, but he did nearly stop in the first one in the test, but we nailed the second one.”

Katherine said she has always liked this show, the size of the grounds and seeing people she knows. She and Beloved tried the Prix St. Georges last year, and got a 58%. “You see, we come to this show whether we are ready or not!” said Katherine.

The winner of Fourth Level Test 1 was Brandi Benedict on Fenice with 72.8% and Test 2 was won by Jennifer Moran on Commandant’s Cadence. Second in both classes was Katherine Mashbir on her 9 year old gelding Defoe with 69.1% and 66.2%. But it was as good as a victory for her. “He hasn’t been in a show for 4 years. He’s a smart, athletic, challenging horse at home, so there was no point in showing him. I thought about selling him, but he’s a professional’s horse, and who would I sell him to?! I’ve had him since he was a baby at 10 months old. I found him in northern California when I lived in southern California. He’s by DeNiro, and there he was, black with four socks and a blaze. But as difficult as he is at home, he’s been good when I take him away. I did a Fix a Text at Fourth Level with Linda Zang who gave him a good score.” Katherine plans for Prix St. Georges and CDIs in his future.

Leslie King, Coatsville, Pa., brought her handsome bay gelding Time Lord, a Deutches Reitpferd (and her two dogs) to show at Second Level Test 3. They won with 68.57% which also earned them the Dover Medal. “Deutches Reitpferde is a mixture of breeds,” she explained. Leslie went to Germany to find her horse and remembered looking at 20 horses the first two days, riding 12 of them. The third day she rode the top four again, and settled on Time Lord. “I bought him as much for his mind,” she said. Leslie knew the Loch Moy grounds because she used to event and had competed there. After her event horse fractured his coffin bone and was laid up, she was fortunate to lease an Intermediaire horse for a year. After that she was hooked on dressage. She still works with her event instructor, Sally Lofting and Jessica Ransheousen, who agree on the training path.

The three rings were judged by Cindy Canace, Judy Westenhoefer, and Cathery Tucker-Slaterbeck. The TD was Peter Onoszko, manager was Tedi Lesniewski, secretary was Carolyn Del Grosso. Volunteer coordinators were the Danish duo, Ninja Nissen and Camilla Cornwell. Grateful thanks go to the show volunteers: Kyrie Garretson, Emily Long, Liz Smith, Tracy McKenna, Suzy Hek, Lacey Gentry, Valerie Mallder, Karrie Recknor, Hannah Recknor, Camilla Cornwell, Adrienne Wiesenberg, Erica Carroll, Jocelyn Pearson, Elaine Jordan, Linda Speer, and Ninja Nissen.

PVDA Schooling Show

Chimney Hill Farm, Upper Marlboro, Md. • September 9, 2012

The weather pattern the day before our show produced heavy rains and strong winds and kept us wondering if we would have to cancel. Fortunately, Sunday turned out to be a beautiful pre-Fall day and we enjoyed wonderful weather. Many thanks to our show hosts, Sharon and David Myers, our judge Ingrid Gentry and all of our riders and supporters. To all our volunteers—Mardee Rochelle, Jan Denno, Leslye Boyce, Karen Anderson, Gabby Anderson, Julia Claypool, Teresa Cottle, Cheryl Cavalier, and Bob, Krisztina, and Karolina Ware—thank you for a job well done!
