

The Royal Institute of Navigation Younger Members' Group

Calling early career researchers and professionals in navigation!

Join the newly-formed RIN Younger Members' Group to:

- Develop academic-industry connections
- Influence the future events and activities of the RIN
- Be part of a navigation community
- Engage with other young people in the field
- Access relevant resources
- Develop your career
- Reach out to the next generation of navigators

Our vision is to be an inclusive group of diverse disciplines working together for a more navigable world.
