Questions to discuss
1. Why is diversification of the Board important to the organization?
2. How will greater Board diversity affect achievement of the organization's mission?

Questions to ask and answer
- Why greater diversification?
- What do you wish to achieve?
- How will greater diversification affect the Board's performance?
- How does it aligned with the organization's mission/vision and core values?

Conduct an audit of the Board
- Current demographic make up?
- Future/desired demographic make up?
- Life experiences and subject matter expertise?
- Requirements from funding partners
- Other considerations?
- Put your commitment in writing
Assessment of skills; Alignment to strategy

- Determine knowledge/core competencies required
- Complete a gap analysis
- Identify knowledge/skills to acquire

Breakout

Questions to discuss
1. Does the Board, your constituents and community know of the organization’s commitment to diversity? If so, what’s the communication channel(s)?
2. How does the Board typically source board candidates? Do you need to expand your network?

Recruitment and Selection Strategy

1. Identify the Board’s priorities.
2. Communicate your vacancy.
3. Expand your network.
4. Select your candidate.
Amass sufficient knowledge and expertise in key areas
- Similarity of experience helps to drive collaboration
- Enriches discussion and the ability to challenge assumptions
- Drive for better results

Board Committee Composition
- Required/desired skills for effective participation
- Unique experience and broader perspective
- Ask members to lead or sit on special committees or projects

Orient Board to Diversity Issues
- Orientation should include diversity and inclusion initiatives
- Awareness of access points for input
- Alignment to organization’s mission, vision and core values
Metrics, Measurement & Results

How will we know how we are progressing?
✓ Develop actions aligned to established metrics
✓ Measure, Measure, Measure
✓ Did you achieve your desired outcomes?
