As part of the 60th Anniversary celebration, ISC is collecting personal stories that highlight our history, impact and influence on the sculpture community. For the last 60 years, ISC’s mission has been to build a supportive environment for sculpture and sculptors. We want to hear stories from all members of the sculpture community about the impact and/or your relationship with the International Sculpture Center. ISC will be collecting and sharing these stories that have built the foundation of our past and created the organization we are today. Please submit your video story with the following specifications. A series of questions is also included to consider when creating your content. Lastly, upon submission you will be asked to agree the terms and conditions, which are included here for your review. Please contact conferenceassociate@sculpture.org for more information or if you have any questions.
