What SEAHO means to me

“ SEAHO has been my professional home since I attended my first SEAHO in Charlotte, N.C., in 1993. Once I attended that first SEAHO I was hooked and knew that I would become a regular. Having attended every SEAHO since 1993, it is now like a family reunion and many of the professional colleagues I have met through SEAHO are now close friends... The opportunities that I have been given through SEAHO have contributed greatly to my development as a Housing professional. I am proud to have had the opportunity to chair the Program Committee, serve on Governing Council and attend RELI as a faculty member.”
