SSLA is the only non-profit association dedicated to the mentorship and development of women in service since 1984. Historically, we are best known for the work we do creating the annual Joint Women's Leadership Symposium (JWLS). Now, SSLA is seeking new ways to expand our impact. We are building a new membership website, expanding and starting Chapters, hosting members events, and much more! SSLA is transforming to a highly professional and capable organization, come be a part of the momentum.
