Welcome to Chattanooga

Tucked in the foothills of the Appalachian Mountains, Chattanooga is known regionally for its beautiful scenery and place within American history as well as for cultivating a spirit of entrepreneurship and innovation. Along with our colleagues at The University of Tennessee at Chattanooga, we are pleased to welcome you to our city for the SECAC 2019 Conference. We are excited to see rich and meaningful conversations unfold over the next several days, rippling out beyond the conference in ways we cannot yet imagine.

We hope you will have the opportunity to explore Chattanooga throughout the run of the conference, and we encourage you to join us for off-site programming including the keynote reception and address at the Hunter Museum of American Art, the annual SECAC Artist Fellowship Exhibition at UTC’s ConTemporary Cress Gallery, and a reception for the 2019 SECAC Juried Exhibition at the Stove Works satellite location.

We would like to extend our sincere gratitude to the many people who have made this conference possible. We are grateful for the leadership of SECAC President Sandra Reed and the assistance of SECAC Administrator Christine Tate. Thank you to Sharon Louden for accepting our invitation to serve as our conference keynote, juror Amelia Briggs for selecting a focused and dynamic collection of artworks, and Stove Works staff for partnering with us to present the 2019 SECAC Juried Exhibition. The University of Tennessee at Chattanooga Department of Art, College of Arts and Sciences, Honors College, Library, and Office for Undergraduate Research and Creative Endeavor, along with many of our regional institutions and organizations, have come together in sponsorship and support to make this conference possible. Finally, thank you to the Hunter Museum of American Art for hosting the conference keynote event and for opening your galleries to our conference attendees. These partnerships are what makes our extended community special.

More than 140 concurrent sessions will explore parenthood, strategies for supporting each other, the place of the institution amongst current political turmoil, and community engagement through design, amongst dozens of other topics. Through our collaboration as conference co-directors, we have worked to develop programming that reflects our priorities to address strategies for intentional diversity and inclusivity; promotes professional development; centers on generous and generative community building; highlights innovative teaching; and seeks to challenge conventions. To this end, we are proud to have waived the juried exhibition submission fee this year and have offered the UTC Art Award for Equity and Inclusion, small gestures we hope will bring new people to SECAC, help to make everyone feel welcome, and encourage future SECAC directors to consider new ways to provide support and encourage inclusivity. We are impressed and invigorated by the spirit of sharing, mentorship, and collegiality reflected in this year’s conference programming. This generosity is what brought us to SECAC, what keeps us returning, and what encouraged us to accept the charge to plan SECAC 2019 for our community.

Thank you for joining us to make SECAC 2019 another outstanding conference.

Land Acknowledgment
We wish to acknowledge the land on which SECAC 2019 is taking place. This area is the traditional territory of the Cherokee and Yuchi indigenous peoples, and their history is integral to the rich and complex story of our region.
On behalf of the Department of Art at The University of Tennessee at Chattanooga, I am delighted to welcome you to SECAC 2019. Chattanooga is a beautiful, vibrant city and I hope you enjoy your time here.

The University of Tennessee at Chattanooga (UTC) is a public university and the second largest school in the University of Tennessee system. Founded in 1886 as a private Methodist Episcopal college, the University of Chattanooga (UC) merged with the UT system in 1969. Today we are a bustling campus with more than 10,000 students. If you walk through campus during your stay, you’ll see many changes taking place. UTC is growing and the Department of Art is part of that.

UTC Art, located in the College of Arts and Sciences, is an exciting place to study, teach, and visit. Our vision is to be at the forefront of undergraduate education in the making and study of art. We offer an accessible, rigorous, and supportive learning environment that exposes our students to a wide range of creative processes and intellectual models for contemporary practice. Our programs include BA degrees in Studio Art, Art History, and Art Education as well as BFA concentrations in Graphic Design, Painting and Drawing, Photography and Media Art, and Sculpture. We are a NASAD-accredited institution with nationally recognized faculty and a wonderful community of students.

Speaking of our students, we are proud to say that the promotional graphics for SECAC 2019 were designed by our students. I’d like to acknowledge the BFA Graphic Design Class of 2019 whose talents supplied the initial identity design. Thank you to: Stephanie Adams, Lexi Alexander, Sean Burney, Bobbie Carey, Kayla Green, Jocelyn Humphries, Naylene Huneryager, Juniper Jefferies, Taylor Jones, Chris Kuchma, Ashley Prak, Emily Ricks, and Patrick Tyree. I also acknowledge Quin Crumb (BFA Graphic Design, Class of 2021) for his outstanding work in designing this program, the conference signage, and many other components that will shape your experience here.

At UTC Art, we believe that art has power and is woven into all aspects of our world. We strive to nurture and amplify diverse voices through the work that we do. From exhibitions and performances to public lectures to hallway critiques, there is always something interesting happening here.

We are pleased to host SECAC 2019. I hope you will find the conference engaging and thought-provoking. I hope you will see old friends and make new ones. I hope you will explore our campus and community, and return again in the future.

TRANSPORTATION

Airport Transportation
The conference hotel is located only fifteen minutes from the nearby Chattanooga Airport. Taxi and popular ridesharing services (UBER/LYFT) are available for approximately $20 each way. Wednesday-Friday local bus services departing the Chattanooga airport every hour and a half. The trip takes approximately 40 minutes and costs $1.50. More information available online: https://www.gocarta.org/maps/route19.pdf CARTA’s Downtown Electric Shuttle provides a free and easy way to navigate downtown, with buses that operate daily from the historic Chattanooga Choo Choo to the Tennessee Aquarium.

Special Thursday Evening Transportation
The Hunter Museum of American Art is located in the Bluff View Arts District in Chattanooga. There will be coach buses circulating from The Chattanoogan Hotel to the Hunter beginning at 5:00pm until the beginning of the Keynote address at 7:00pm. Following the event, buses will run for approximately one hour from the Hunter Museum. There are numerous attractions, restaurants, and bars within walking distance from the museum, and should you miss the last shuttle back to the hotel, CARTA’s Downtown Electric Shuttle stops only blocks from the Hunter and from The Chattanoogan Hotel.

Special Friday Evening Transportation
The Stove Works satellite location is a short walk from The Chattanoogan Hotel, but should you prefer to take a bus, a small shuttle will run from The Chattanoogan to the gallery approximately every 20 minutes, beginning at 5:40pm and ending at 8:00pm.
SHARON M. LOUDEN
Keynote Speaker

KEYNOTE ADDRESS
THURSDAY, OCTOBER 17 7:00PM–8:00PM
THE HUNTER MUSEUM OF AMERICAN ART*

Sharon M. Louden is an artist, educator, advocate for artists, editor of the Living and Sustaining a Creative Life series of books and the Artistic Director of the Visual Arts at Chautauqua Institution.

Published in October, 2013, Living and Sustaining a Creative Life is now in its 7th printing, with sales in over 24 countries. The book has been translated into Korean, garnered over 45 reviews, the subject of 15 podcasts and radio appearances and received more individual feedback than can be counted.

From September, 2013 until late May, 2015, Louden traveled on a 62-stop book tour, where she met thousands of artists from all over the US. Louden has continued this momentum bringing her second book, The Artist as Culture Producer, on an extensive 102-stop conversation/book tour which launched on March, 2017, and concluded in April, 2018. This book is now in its second printing and has also sold in 24 countries as well as adopted in many schools all over the US. The last book in the trilogy of Living and Sustaining a Creative Life books, Last Artist Standing (which focuses on artists over the age of 50), will be published in 2020.

Sharon is a faculty member in the MFA Fine Arts program at the School of Visual Arts in New York and a Senior Critic at the New York Academy of Art where she organizes a popular lecture series, interviewing luminaries and exceptional individuals in the art world and from afar.

In addition to teaching in colleges and universities, Louden is also active on boards and committees of various not-for-profit art organizations and volunteers her time to artists to further their careers. Sharon is a consultant for the Joan Mitchell Foundation and is a member of the Artist Advisory boards of the New York Foundation for the Arts, Ox-Bow School of Art and the Carolyn Glasoe Bailey Foundation.

* Buses leave The Chattanoogan beginning at 5pm, with a reception beginning at 5:30pm, and the 2019 SECAC keynote address at 7pm. The Hunter Museum of American Art has extended free admission to SECAC attendees with their badge through Sunday, October 20.
2018 SECAC ARTISTS’ FELLOWSHIP RECIPIENT EXHIBITION

My Other Body: Trans-Culture, Transgender Cuba/Alabama
Karen Graffeo, Julio Larramendi, Sonja Rieger, and Carolyn Sherer
September 24 – October 19

“In each and every photograph, these four exceptional artists ‘speak of the encounter,’ capturing a moment in the lives of their subjects, but opening a window to personal narratives that well surpass the edges of the printed image. In bearing witness, Graffeo, Larramendi, Rieger, and Sherer communicate the personhood of their sitters to us, creating pathways for awareness, understanding, and acceptance.”

-Graham C. Boettcher, The R. Hugh Daniel Director

AMELIA BRIGGS
Exhibition Juror

Amelia Briggs is a visual artist based in Nashville, TN where she has served as the Director of David Lusk Gallery since 2017. She received her BFA from Herron School of Art and Design through Indiana University and her MFA from the University of Memphis. Her work has been exhibited and published extensively throughout the US. Briggs is currently represented by Red Arrow Gallery in Nashville, TN and Uprise Art in New York, NY.

STOVE WORKS
Exhibition Partner

We have partnered with Chattanooga’s Stove Works, a new residency program and exhibition space, to present the 2019 SECAC Juried Exhibition. Serving as our juror is Amelia Briggs, who has shaped an incredible exhibition from over 650 unique artwork submissions.

Artists selected for the exhibition include:

Elissa Armstrong  Mary Laube
Brianna Bass  Vivian Liddell
Tony M. Bingham  Symphony Medley
Mark Bradley-Shoup  Lacy Mitcham
Holt Brasher  Ann Moody
Chung-Fan Chang  Benedict L. Scheuer
Melissa Dunn  Astri Snodgrass
McLean Fahnestock  Karla Stinger-Stein
Nell Gottlieb  Tracy Treadwell
Natalie Harrison  Ting Wang
Anne Herbert  Danner Washburn

Visit the 2019 SECAC Juried Exhibition at Stove Works satellite location (1404 Cowart Street) throughout the conference. The venue is open 12-5pm Wednesday-Friday of the conference. On Friday night, make sure to join us for the closing reception from 6-8pm.

a visual art school serving the Southeast

Townsend Atelier is a visual art school and materials store that offers demos, classes and workshops year-round in painting, drawing, print-making, sculpture, and a weekly figure-drawing studio. All classes are taught by professional working artists who are top in their fields. Our students range from beginner to professional artists who seek to develop their artistic skills in a unique and welcoming atelier setting. Our retail store offers an array of thoughtfully selected art materials.

The MTSU Department of Art and Design’s mission is to provide a visual education to a student population with diverse life experiences, educational expectations, and professional requirements. To achieve this, we provide a structured and supportive creative environment in which students are encouraged to ask questions and explore traditional and emerging technologies. Students can acquire the aesthetic judgment, art historical knowledge, technical skills, vocabulary, and attitudes necessary to become professionals in their chosen fields. We serve as advocates for the visual arts by creating original art and scholarship, by presenting art exhibitions, and by offering public lectures and workshops for the University, local, and regional communities.

ART and DESIGN DEPARTMENT of MIDDLE TENNESSEE STATE UNIVERSITY.
trueBLUE.
UTC Art conceives of material engagement, process, critical thinking, and context as cornerstones of an education in the arts. The depth and substance that insures the development of artistic competencies among our student majors is attested by the success of our graduates in meeting their professional objectives, entering highly competitive graduate schools in the fine arts, and securing professional placement in their respective fields.

Beyond the conference, there is lots to do while you are visiting Chattanooga. Some of our favorite art venues and cultural spaces are listed here.

The Hunter Museum of American Art

10AM-8PM
10 Bluff View, Chattanooga, TN 37403
https://www.huntermuseum.org
The Hunter Museum of American Art’s mission is to engage our diverse audiences in active dialogue about the importance, meaning, and relevance of American Art. In addition to their permanent collection, special exhibition “Noel W. Anderson: Blak Origin Moment” is on display. Special reception and keynote address Thursday, October 17 starting at 5:30pm, circulator buses from The Chattanoogan begin at 5:00pm.

Chattanooga Public Library 4th Floor

Monday-Thursday 9AM-8PM
Friday + Saturday 9AM-6PM
1001 Broad St. Chattanooga, TN 37402
https://chattlibrary.org/4th-floor
The 4th floor is a public laboratory and educational facility with a focus on information, design, technology, and the applied arts. The more than 12,000 sq foot space hosts equipment, expertise, programs, events, and meetings that work within this scope. While traditional library spaces support the consumption of knowledge by offering access to media, the 4th floor is unique because it supports the production, connection, and sharing of knowledge by offering access to tools and instruction.

Stove Works Satellite

1404 Cowart St, Chattanooga, TN 37408
https://www.stoveworks.org
Stove Works is a new residency and exhibition venue in Chattanooga. Their mission is to serve the Chattanooga community by providing local, national, and international artists a venue for the production of, exhibition of and education through contemporary works of art. Stove Works is our partner organization for the 2019 SECAC Juried Exhibition. *The site for this exhibition is in a satellite location while their permanent home undergoes extensive renovations in preparation for their first batch of residents. Special reception Friday, October 18 starting at 6pm, the exhibition venue is a short walk away, but there is also a shuttle beginning at 5:40pm from The Chattanoogan.

Sculpture Fields

Open Dawn to Dusk
1800 Polk St. Chattanooga, TN 37408
https://www.sculpturefields.org
Sculpture Fields is a 33 acre public park populated with sculptures from all over the world. Located on Chattanooga’s Southside, it is also the largest sculpture park in the Southeast and beckons visitors from near and far. Founded by local sculptor John Henry.

VERSA Gallery

Opening Reception Friday, October 18 6PM-10PM
1918 Union Avenue, Chattanooga, TN 37404 in the Mercy Junction Justice and Peace Center
https://www.versagallery.org
VERSA is an artist-run space exhibiting contemporary art that values experimentation, diversity, and cross-disciplinary exchange. Their team collaborates with artists in the presentation and discussion of their work, developing exhibitions and programming organically to facilitate a critical exchange of ideas. They have an opening “VERSA + ART TRAP Collaboration” opening the Friday of the conference, and available by appointment.

Townsend Atelier

Open by appointment and during classes. Feel free to call to stop by 423-266-2712
301 East 11th, Chattanooga, TN 37403
http://townsendatelier.com
Townsend Atelier is a store for excellent quality artist-grade materials as well as a venue for workshops by professional artists.

The Levitt Amp Series
200 E M L King Blvd Chattanooga, TN 37402
https://concerts.levittamp.org/chattanooga
The Levitt AMP Chattanooga Music Series energizes the Bessie Smith Cultural Center lawn. Situated at the core of Chattanooga’s Historic Martin Luther King District—a formerly vibrant hub for African American community life known as the Big Nine—the series celebrates the area’s rich heritage while fueling its revitalization through the power of free, live music.
Hours: Thursday night. Opening acts begin at 5:45, headliner goes on at 7pm. Admission is free. Food and beverage vendors on site.

The Open Press
by appointment.
Please call 423-401-8606 for a tour.
1271 Market Street, Suite B Chattanooga, TN 37405
http://theopenpress.org
The Open Press is a letterpress, printmaking, and book arts studio. Their aim is to provide access to a unique and under-utilized artistic resource in Chattanooga, and to build a community of fine artists and craftspeople around this equipment and knowledge.

Carley Cullen of Missouri Valley College will offer a letterpress workshop on Sat., Oct. 19 from 1:15-3:00pm at The Open Press. For registration information, visit@carley.cullen on Instagram.
