Mina has a Bachelor's degree in Comparative Literature with an emphasis in Women's Studies from Occidental College. She also has a Master's in Business Administration from Arizona State University, with a concentration in Human Resources, a Master's in Human Resource Management from Keller Graduate School of Management and a Master's in Legal Studies with a concentration in Human Resources from Arizona State University. Mina has her SPHR certification and will be testing for the SHRM-SCP this coming June. Mina was born in Oakland, California, but has lived in Arizona for most of her life so she considers herself from Arizona. She is currently living in Chandler, Arizona.

FUN FACTS: Mina is a single mom of 3 boys. She is a fan of the Classic Star Trek and enjoys attending Star Trek conventions. She participates in several organized bike rides and hikes in Arizona and can proudly call herself a Spartan after completing a race a few years ago. She volunteers with several organizations which include the Chandler Fire Department, the Scottsdale Center for the Performing Arts and the Transportation Security Administration (TSA). She is an active member of a local choir, attends plays and musicals and enjoys going to the movies.

WHY HR MATTERS: It is vital for human resources to be an active member within an organization not only to mediate for employees, but also to convey the company's policies and procedures. It is a fine line that HR walks and it is vital that we are a resource for everyone in the organization to better understand the needs of management and the employees so we can work as one.
