

PAM ZANZUCCHI

Professionally, Pam is currently leading an HR Department of One (the company is 100% remote). Pam has several years of experience in human resource management, operations management, finance, accounting, risk management, compliance, and in the legal field, notably with a division of a global insurance company, and as a director of a small company (Arizona and New Mexico), a Vice President of an executive staffing firm and years as a paralegal. Pam adds to her professional background with her teaching experience. Pam is a strong advocate of the value of volunteer leadership, sharing knowledge, and providing guidance. She continues to pursue additional education and mentoring as a believer in lifelong learning and helping others to achieve their goals.
