THE AIA NEVADA EXCELLENCE IN DESIGN AWARDS

Eligibility

The AIA Nevada Excellence in Design Awards program is open to all AIA Nevada members who are licensed in the state of Nevada for projects located anywhere in the world, and to AIA members from other states who are licensed in Nevada for projects located in Nevada.

AIA members are invited to submit projects of any size, budget, style or building type. New building projects and restorations are eligible as well as commercial, public works, hospitality or entertainment, interior architecture, residential or any project completed after January 1, 2012.

There is no limit to the number of projects that may be entered by a firm. The entry must have been designed by an architect who is a member of AIA at the time of the project's completion. "Completion" is synonymous with "substantial completion" as defined in the standard AIA documents governing construction. The submitting architect may be a member of a design team, whether or not serving as the head of the team. When one architect is not the sole author of a project, all other participants contributing substantially to the design of the project must be given credit as part of the submission, regardless of professional discipline.

Project authorship must remain concealed throughout the deliberations of the jury. If the authorship is revealed on any of the images, plans, or narrative included in the submittal PDF file the entry will be disqualified.

Projects that have received awards in previous AIA Nevada awards programs are not eligible -- with the exception of projects that have received recognition in previous Unbuilt Design Awards Programs, and have since become built structures and are completed.

Judging Criteria

Each entry is judged for the success with which the project has met its individual requirements. Entries are weighed individually -- not in competition with each other. Projects must exhibit design achievement that demonstrates exemplary skill and creativity in the resolution and integration of formal, functional, and technical requirements, including ecological stewardship and social responsibility. Projects should reflect a strong sense of place, of ecology, of history, or of purpose as an integral part of the demonstrated design excellence.

2016 AIA Nevada Design Awards Announcement of Recipients

Award Recipients will be announced and recognized at the black-tie AIA Nevada Excellence in Design and Distinguished Service Awards Gala being held on Wednesday, December 14, 2016. Tickets may be purchased in October at www.aialasvegas.org.

SUBMITTAL on USB drive: The entire submission - including all images, drawings, and required forms must be provided in a PDF file on a USB drive:

- PDF file pages must to be 8.5"x11" (landscape or portrait orientation) with the total PDF file being 20 pages (or less, based on how many pages of project images you include) and the file being no larger than 10MB in size. Please name this file using your Project ID # followed by the Project Name (example: B20159 - Fifth Street School).
- PDF pages must follow this sequence:
 - Page 1: Title Page (of your own design)
 - Page 2-3: Project Description Form (you may create your own form using the two-page template provided in submission packet, but you must design it line by line and word for word as the template and it cannot contain any images - all text at a 10 pt. font)
 - Pages 4-20: Project Image Pages - photographs, sketches, drawings, etc. in support of the excellence of the project (layout of your own design). You may include as many images as you wish on these pages not to exceed a total of 17 pages.
- In a separate file on the USB drive - three jpg images (no larger than 20MB, no smaller than 1MB at 300 dpi per image) that can be used in the awards presentation program, posted to websites and published by various media. Title each image with your project name followed by a number 1-3 (example: Fifth Street School 1, Fifth Street School 2, Fifth Street School 3). Place them in a file using your Project ID # followed by the Project Name and the word "Images" (example: B20159 Fifth Street School Images).

PROJECT IDENTIFICATION FILE - This separate PDF file is included on the USB drive and must contain the following:

- The Project Identification Form (Entry Form) - This form identifies your firm and project and is for internal use by AIA Nevada only. It will not be seen by the jurors.
- Photo Release Form - Rights to photos, digital images, and plans must be cleared for publication by the entrant. Entrants are responsible for any royalties or copyright photography fees. For this reason, a completed and signed copy of the Photo Release Form must be included in the Project Identification File.
- Intern Disclaimer Form - On May 3-4, 1995 the AIA National Board of Directors adopted a policy whereby ... "any architect desiring to promote or be promoted by AIA through awards programs, publications, speaking engagements, elected or appointed office or admission to Fellowship, must declare that they themselves and/or their firms do not employ unpaid intern architects in their professional practice. This form must be signed and included in the Project Identification File.

THE PROJECT EXHIBIT BOARD - All entries will be displayed at the AIA Nevada Awards Gala (and other locations). To ensure uniformity, each submittal must adhere to the following specifications:

- Each submittal must be mounted on a 24" x 36" white 3/16" or 1/2" foam-core board, vertically or horizontally oriented.
- The board may be individually designed but must include:
 - At least two photographs or images of the project
 - Firm and Project Identification
 - The phrase "2016 AIA Nevada Design Awards" in 48pt Times New Roman type located in the top right hand corner of the board.

The Award for Unbuilt Architecture - recognizes projects of exceptional architectural distinction that have been commissioned, or created as a part of a design competition but have not yet been built, or may never be built. Excellence in Design embraces the ecological, economic, and social circumstances of a project as well as the integration of the highest environmental and sustainable design standards with quality design execution.

Eligibility

The Award for Unbuilt Architecture is for projects that have been designed since January 1, 2012, but remain unbuilt as of the submittal date. The Unbuilt category is open to all AIA Nevada members (architects and associates) in Nevada for projects located anywhere in the world, and to AIA Architect members from other states who are licensed in Nevada for projects located in Nevada.

Project authorship must remain concealed throughout the deliberations of the jury. If the authorship is revealed on any of the images, plans, or narrative the entry will be disqualified.

Unbuilt projects that have received awards in the unbuilt category in previous AIA Nevada awards programs are not eligible to be entered again in this category. Projects that have received recognition in previous "Unbuilt" category, but have since been completed and become built architecture, may be entered for an Award for Built Architecture.

Judging Criteria

Each entry is judged for the success with which the project has met its individual requirements. Entries are weighed individually -- not in competition with each other. Projects must exhibit design achievement that demonstrates exemplary skill and creativity in the resolution and integration of formal, functional, and technical requirements, including ecological stewardship and social responsibility that acknowledges and advances social agendas. Projects should reflect a strong sense of place, of ecology, of history, or of purpose as an integral part of the demonstrated design excellence.

Entry Fee

The entry fee for all projects in this Unbuilt Architecture category is $200.00 per entry. Use the Payment Form to provide payment for all projects you plan to enter in this category. All payments should be made to AIA Las Vegas.

The Award for Collaborative Achievement – Architecture is a collaborative art. In recognition of the teamwork and cooperation required in the successful execution of quality projects, AIA Nevada presents the 2016 Collaborative Achievement Award. This award is designed to recognize and encourage design excellence as achieved through the collaborative efforts of clients, owners, contractors, and architects. This specific area of achievement provides opportunities to recognize the collaboration and the mutual benefits of working with allied professionals. Projects should clearly demonstrate the specific roles of each in the design, building, and completion of an exceptional project.

Eligibility

Any AIA member or group of members may submit a collaborative project however, an AIA Nevada member must be a member of the design team. Projects may be of any size or type including public works, commercial, hospitality, residential, interior architecture or any other kind of project completed since January 1, 2012.

Additional materials are required for the AWARD FOR COLLABORATIVE ACHIEVEMENT. For those who are submitting for this award, please also include the additional materials listed on the submittal instructions.

Due to the nature of this award, project authorship must be revealed. It is, therefore, acceptable for the names of the design team members and participants to be included in the descriptive text as required. Collaborative projects that have received awards in this category in previous AIA Nevada awards programs are not eligible. The jury will deliberate on the materials supplied on the USB drive only.

Judging Criteria

Each entry is judged for the success with which the project has met its individual requirements. Entries are weighed individually -- not in competition with each other. Projects must exhibit design achievement that demonstrates exemplary skill and creativity in the resolution and integration of formal, functional, and technical requirements, including ecological stewardship and social responsibility. Projects should reflect a strong sense of place, of ecology, of history, or of purpose as an integral part of the demonstrated design excellence.

The jury will deliberate on the materials supplied in the submittal USB drive (PDF file only). Project authorship must be concealed on and within the pdf. Submittals that fail to adhere to this policy will be disqualified.

The Award for Academic Projects - Exceptional design ideas are being created by architecture students and this category recognizes projects of exceptional architectural distinction that are designed by students as a part of a studio or for academic credit in a class program. Excellence in Design embraces the ecological, economic, and social circumstances of a project as well as the integration of the highest environmental and sustainable design standards with quality design execution.

Eligibility

This category is only open to students who are currently enrolled in an architecture class for academic credit. Projects must have been completed since January 1, 2014. Projects that have received awards in previous AIA Nevada awards programs are not eligible.

Judging Criteria

The jury will deliberate on the materials supplied in the PDF file on USB drive only. Each entry in the Academic category is judged for the success with which the project has met its individual requirements. Entries are weighted individually, not in competition with each other. The size and location of the project or program in no way limits its eligibility. Design achievement can be evidenced by the exploration of new approaches to ecological planning, urban form, or sensitive reinforcement of successful historical development patterns. Entries should address ecological issues by describing (preferably with graphics) how the design captures, collects, stores, and distributes resident renewable resources and energies. Entries may also exhibit improvements in the quality of life, the environment, and/or technical advancement of urban systems.

Entry Fee: This category is limited to students who are currently enrolled in an architecture class for academic credit. The fee for this category is $25.00 per entry. Use the Payment Form and make payments to AIA Las Vegas.

AWARD FOR ACADEMIC PROJECTS

Submittals that do not meet all of these requirements will be disqualified.

Place them in a folder using your Project ID # followed by the Project Name and the word “Images” (example: B20159 Fifth Street School Images).

THE PROJECT IDENTIFICATION FILE – This Seperate PDF file is included on the USB drive and must contain the following:

- The Project Identification Form (Entry Form) – This form identifies your firm and project and is for internal use by AIA Nevada only. It will not be seen by the jurors.
- Photo Release Form – Rights to photos, digital images, and plans must be cleared for publication by the entrant. Entrants are responsible for any royalties or copyright photography fees. For this reason, a completed and signed copy of the Photo Release Form must be included in the Project Identification File.
- Intern Disclaimer Form – On May 3-4, 1995 the AIA National Board of Directors adopted a policy whereby ... “any architect desiring to promote or be promoted by AIA through awards programs, publications, speaking engagements, elected or appointed office or admission to Fellowship, must declare that they themselves and/or their firms do not employ unpaid intern architects in their professional practice. This form must be signed and included in the Project Identification File.
- THE PROJECT EXHIBIT BOARD – All entries will be displayed at the AIA Nevada Awards Gala (and other locations). To ensure uniformity, each submittal must adhere to the following specifications:
 - Each submittal must be mounted on a 24” x 36” white 3/16” or 1/2” foam-core board, vertically or horizontally oriented.
 - The board may be individually designed but must include:
 - At least two photographs or images of the project.
 - Firm and Project Identification.
 - The phrase “2016 AIA Nevada Design Awards” in 48pt Times New Roman type located in the top right hand corner of the board.

The jury will deliberate on the materials supplied in the submittal USB drive (PDF file only). Project authorship must be concealed on and within the pdf. Submittals that fail to adhere to this policy will be disqualified.

2016 CALL FOR ENTRIES

Celebrating the Best in Contemporary American Architecture through Excellence in Design

The Nevada Chapter of the American Institute of Architects (AIA Nevada) recognizes achievements for a broad range of architectural activity through the AIA Nevada Excellence In Design Awards program. Our purpose is to elevate the quality of architectural practice, establish a standard of excellence against which all architects can measure performance and inform the public of the breadth and value of architecture practice. AIA Nevada advocates that quality architecture is sustainable architecture. All projects that are submitted should include sustainable design principles.

To achieve these goals, the 2016 AIA Nevada Excellence in Design Awards program has four divisions:

- A | Built Architecture
- B | Unbuilt Architecture
- C | Collaborative Achievement
- D | Academic Projects

Please review each category for the individual program eligibility and submission requirements, judging criteria and deadlines.

All entries become the property of AIA Nevada and will be retained in the collections and archives of the UNLV Architecture Studies Library.
