BIOGRAPHY: Jeanette Cornier, Ph.D. is an Education Transformation Advisor and Professional Leadership Coach providing support to leaders focused on transforming educational outcomes in places where students struggle the most. Jeanette has coached school and district leaders in multiple Colorado districts. She has consulted with leaders on the development of educational plans and school designs for innovation, charter, and new schools. Jeanette has held numerous leadership positions in education. At the state level, she led high-impact initiatives including school and district improvement, closing the achievement gap, school turnaround, academic standards, research on best practices in literacy, math, and science instruction and interventions for students with learning disabilities. In addition, she is a former school administrator, teacher and instructional coach. Jeanette frequently presents at state and national conferences on leadership development and coaching.

COACHING PRACTICE PHILOSOPHY: As a leadership coach, I employ a variety of coaching tools to support educational leaders to reflect on their practice, identify and remove barriers, and take purposeful actions that lead to results. Coaching conversations are directed by the leader being coached. The format is generally a 45 minute long phone call weekly or twice a month. My success as a leadership coach is directly tied to leaders reaching their goals. Coaching has resulted in increased job satisfaction for leaders and improved student outcomes in their schools.

K-12 EXPERIENCE: Leadership Coach and Consultant (2 years); Assistant Commissioner of Education (3 years); State Leader: Literacy & Standards (3 years); State Leader: Learning Disabilities (4 years); Middle School Assistant Principal (1 year); Instructional Coach (1 year).

DEGREES AND COACHING CERTIFICATIONS: Cognitive Coaching, Agency Trainer POWERful Coaching, Certification Doctorate in Educational Leadership

COACHING EXPERTISE: I offer expertise in leadership coaching, cognitive coaching, and instructional leadership. In addition, I have expertise in innovation schools, new school development, charters, turnaround, school improvement, and data-driven practices.

YEARS COACHING: 13 years

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION: It is important to find a leadership coach who is a good match for you. Look for someone who both empowers you and challenges you.
