

Jain Workshop at Atlanta GA, USA

With a great success of our past two Workshops conducted in Raleigh, NC in October and December 2017, Jain Society Greater Atlanta and JAINA Education Committee have jointly organized the Jain workshop from Friday March 2, 2018 to Sunday March 4, 2018.

Workshop Theme and Purpose

Striking a Balance - Examining Social, Cultural, and Spiritual environment that our youth face while growing up in North America

The main purpose of the workshop is to educate both adults and youth (over 14 years of age) with regards to the fundamental principles and philosophy of Jainism and how to apply these principles in all walks of life through practical examples. This includes social, business, family, ethical, religious and spiritual environment.

Workshop Moderator

Workshop moderator is Pravin K Shah, Jaina Education Committee chairperson and Jain eLibrary Project in-charge. The workshop will be in English with some Hindi/Gujarati explanation.
