About this Map:
 LATA (Local Access and Transport Area):
 At the time of the Bell System breakup, Bell operating companies were restricted to operations within specified areas called LATAs.
 EXCHANGE:
 An exchange is an area within which the local service provider has agreed to provide service pursuant to the terms of its tariff, as approved by the Minnesota Public Utilities Commission.
 AREA CODE:
 An area code represents the zone within which a distinct 3 digit code is assigned for the proper routing of telephone calls. Area code boundaries have traditionally followed exchange boundary lines. However, the 612/651 area code split implemented in Minnesota in 1998 and the 612/952/763 area code split implemented in 2000 follow municipal and/or exchange boundaries.
 LOCAL CALLING AREAS:
 Local calling areas are the areas in which there is flat rate local calling. Only the Twin Cities Metro Local Calling area is shown on this map.
 LOCAL TELEPHONE SERVICE:
 The companies shown here for each exchange are the companies that served prior to competition. Additional telephone companies, referred to as Competitive Local Exchange Carriers, now provide local telephone service in many exchanges in Minnesota. See the Minnesota Department of Commerce website for a list of some of the CLECs that serve each city and township in Minnesota - www.commerce.state.mn.us
