

Your Professional Development Solution = ODN Enterprise Membership

The Organization Development Network (OD Network) is proud to announce our new solution to the professional development needs of your OD, HR, quality, and project management staff: Enterprise Membership in the OD Network.

We have put together an unprecedented package of unique offerings designed to address the critical professional development needs of you and your staff.

OD Network Enterprise Members have free or discounted access to a full array of professional development and engagement opportunities, including our professional development webinars, publications, archives, toolkits, peer-to-peer programs, a community of practice for internal practitioners, and the Job Exchange as well as substantial discounts on what promises to be our best-ever annual conference. These are just some of the offers for Enterprise Members that are designed to increase the effectiveness of your internal change agents and HR staff.

Through Enterprise Membership, multiple professionals in your organization join our network of skilled practitioners, consultants and researchers who are committed to the health of their organizations, communities and society... leading-edge professionals who know what it takes to make change happen, get results and drive continuous development and growth.

OD Network Enterprise Membership: $399 per person

 Minimum 5 individuals per organization*

$400 discount per person off of full annual conference price

Complimentary access to all webinars held in 2014 and the webinar archive (value of more than $700)

All current and archived OD Network publications going back to 1968

Special profile on OD Network site

First consideration for the ODN Organizational Excellence Award

Participate in quarterly roundtable sessions for Enterprise Members

Other Membership Features

Networking

Through communities of practice and roundtables, network with experienced, influential OD peers and colleagues who apply and innovate with the latest game-changing strategies to take themselves, their teams and their organizations to the next level.

Access

Access cutting-edge research and trends through our peer-reviewed journals and peer-to-peer coaches and mentors to support, guide and nurture all levels of professional growth.

Education

Attend free or significantly discounted webinars, training programs and conferences as well as gain discounted access to applicable tools and resources associated with the OD profession.

OD Network membership benefits your organization in the following ways:

Fuels innovation and growth with fresh and compelling effective best practice ideas

Inspires and develops top talent to drive improvement in your organization

Provides a great return on your professional development investment