

2016 Fall Conference Preview

By Amy Ngai

AABANY Treasurer and 2016 Fall Conference Program Chair

On Saturday, September 24, 2016, AABANY will proudly present its 2016 Fall Conference, "Speak Up, Rise Up, Lift Up," hosted by Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP. In addition to a full day of CLE and non-CLE programs on cutting edge topics, presented by AABANY's committees and partners, attendees are also invited to participate in Pitch Sessions, as well as AABANY's Diversity Career Fair & Expo.

For more information and to register online, please visit <https://conference2016.aabany.org>.

Diversity Career Fair & Expo

AABANY's Career Placement Committee is hosting its second annual Diversity Career Fair & Expo, featuring selected employers from the public sector, the corporate sector, and law firms. Attendees will have an opportunity to attend informational sessions, meet-and-greets, and in some instances, participate in on-site interviews. In addition, attendees can chat with members of AABANY's Career Placement Committee for career advice and to learn more about other job opportunities. [See "Diversity Career Fair & Expo—A Success Story," below.]

Pitch Sessions

Apply for a slot in our Pitch Sessions, which provide a platform and opportunity for law firm attorneys, solo practitioners and select legal service providers to showcase their services to AABANY's growing network of in-house counsels and other participants interested in legal services. Visit us online for an updated list as well as FAQs. [See sidebar on page 3 for a list of participating companies at the time of press.]

CLEs, Career Panels, and Workshops

The theme of this year's programs is to encourage attendees to "speak up" for themselves, "rise up" to face challenges, and "lift up" their peers and communities. This year's Fall Conference

Diversity Career Fair & Expo—A Success Story

By Tiffany Tsai

VP of Communications, AABANY Career Placement Committee

On September 24, 2016 AABANY's Career Placement Committee will host its second annual Diversity Career Fair & Expo (the "DCF") at the 2016 AABANY Fall Conference. We are tremendously proud to announce that last year, the DCF led to several outstanding job placements. Below we share one particular success story. We welcome AABANY members to attend this year's DCF and look forward to sharing even more success stories with you in the near future. To register for the DCF or to see the current list of participating employers, visit our website at conference2016.aabany.org/diversity-career-fair.

Letter from the President

AABANY President
Susan Shin

Dear AABANY Members,
Friends, and Supporters,

On behalf of the Board and AABANY's leadership, thank you so much for your continued support of this wonderful organization. Every day I grow more impressed with the talented membership and more honored to be serving as its President.

AABANY has had an incredibly active second quarter of 2016. Here are just a handful of highlights from this summer:

- June 2, 2016, AALFNY and AABANY co-hosted their annual Summer Reception at the New York offices of Baker & McKenzie LLP, honoring AABANY Board member, Manisha Sheth, for her recent appointment as Executive Deputy Attorney General for Economic Justice by New York State Attorney General Eric T. Schneiderman. AALFNY's Community Service Scholarship and the AALFNY/SABANY (South Asian Bar Association of New York) Public Interest Scholarship were also awarded.
- June 3, 2016, AABANY participated in the Caren Aronowitz Unity in Diversity Fair at the Rotunda on 60 Centre Street, an event presented by the Cultural Diversity Committee and the Gender Fairness Committee of the Supreme Court, Civil Branch, New York County, and the New York County Clerk's Office.
- June 4, 2016, the AABANY Young Lawyers Committee held its spring community service project with Publicolor, at Peace and Diversity Academy in the Bronx, where volunteers were paired up with students for a day of painting and informal mentoring.
- June 9, 2016, the AABANY Prosecutors Committee celebrated its 8th Annual Reception at the New York County Lawyers Association by honoring two trailblazers in Public Service, Hon. Alexander Jeong (Justice of the New York State Court of Claims, Deputy Administrative Judge, New York City Criminal Court) and Diane Gujarati (Deputy Chief, Criminal Division, United States Attorney's Office, Southern District of New York). Many esteemed officials gave warm-hearted speeches on behalf of the honorees, including

US Attorney for the Southern District of New York, Hon. Preet Bharara.

- June 16, 2016, the AABANY Corporate Law Committee and the In-House Counsel Committee held their 9th Annual Wine Tasting & Networking Reception for Law Firm Partners and Senior In-House Counsel, attended by approximately 140 invitees.
- June 17, 2016, AABANY co-hosted "Movie Night: Seoul Searching" with the Asian American Arts Alliance, Harvard Asian American Alumni Association, Harvard Business School Asian American Alumni Association, FF Fraternity, and Cornell Asian American Alumni Association to support APA attorney and co-producer of the movie, Brigitte Noh.
- June 23, 2016, AABANY co-sponsored a trial reenactment by the National Filipino American Lawyers Association, the Filipino American Lawyers Association of New York and the Filipino American Lawyers Association of Oregon entitled, "Justice Denied: Wards Cove Packing Co. v. Atonio" at the 16th Biennial Conference, A Pinoy State of Mind: Building Our Roots, hosted by the Filipino American National Historical Society at John Jay College.
- June 30, 2016, the AABANY Government Service & Public Interest Committee, Pro Bono & Community Service Committee, and Student Outreach Committee co-hosted a Reception for Law Student Interns Working in Government or Public Interest at Lee Anav Chung White Kim Ruger & Richter LLP.

As I have noted before, we have so much to celebrate, but Asian Americans in the legal field remain dramatically underrepresented in the judiciary, high government offices, law firm partnerships, and in-house counsel boardrooms. AABANY continues to strive to do what we can—together—to help each other to advance, be vocal to affect change in our workplaces, and devote time to mentor young Asian American lawyers. Thank you all for getting involved and working with AABANY to Speak up, Rise up, and Lift up.

Sincerely,

Susan L. Shin

Prosecutors Committee Celebrates 8th Annual Reception

By Simone Nguyen
AABANY Program Associate

On June 9, 2016, the Asian American Bar Association of New York (AABANY) Prosecutors Committee celebrated its 8th Annual Reception at the New York County Lawyers Association (NYCLA) by honoring two trailblazers in Public Service: Hon. Alexander Jeong (Justice of the New York State Court of Claims, Deputy Administrative Judge, New York City Criminal Court) and Diane Gujarati (Deputy Chief, Criminal Division, United States Attorney's Office, Southern District of New York).

The evening featured representatives from various prosecutors' offices who spoke admirably about the important work of their esteemed colleagues in representing the people and defending the public, injecting some collegial humor and inspiring remarks along the way. What started as a casual and serendipitous dinner among Asian American prosecutors eight years ago, the AABANY Prosecutors' Committee Reception has grown to an annual event that fills the room to capacity with attendees from all across New York City.

Among the distinguished speakers were:

- Catherine Christian, past NYCLA President
- Susan L. Shin, AABANY President
- Robert L. Capers, U.S. Attorney, EDNY
- Madeline Singas, Nassau County District Attorney
- Bridget Brennan, Special Narcotics Prosecutor, New York County District Attorney's Office
- Jesse Sligh, Executive ADA, Queens County
- Nitin Savur, Executive Assistant District Attorney for Strategic Initiatives, Deputy Chief of the Trial Division, Criminal Court, New York County
- Leroy Frazer, Chief of Staff, Kings County
- Hon. Preet Bharara, U.S. Attorney, SDNY

United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York Hon. Preet Bharara praised Diane for her insight and character, which he remarked was obvious from the very beginning. Diane arrived at the U.S. Attorney's Office seven months before Preet did. After having served for almost 17 years, she has tried every case imaginable and, according to Preet, she has met every challenge with intellectual rigor and grace.

Justice Alexander Jeong, a trailblazer in the court system, reminisced over his early happy and stressful days as a prosecutor. It was his first full-time position following an accident that rendered him disabled. He realized how empowering the faith of his superiors and colleagues at the District Attorney's Office was, and he went on to have a tremendously successful career as a prosecutor before joining the bench. He is now lauded as a judge with the utmost respect for the court system and victims, always keeping in mind his mission of serving the public with fairness and integrity.

Instilling the public with faith that the law will uphold the rights of the people, as told by each of the distinguished speakers at the Reception, a diverse population of prosecutors and judges also inspires the next generation of lawyers serving the public interest. Thank you to Co-Chairs of the Prosecutors Committee, Jim Lin, Kin Ng, and Helen Ahn for organizing this wonderful event. Congratulations to each of the extremely talented and deserving honorees. ♦

APA Heritage Month with AABANY

By Simone Nguyen
AABANY Program Associate

During the month of May, APA Heritage Month, AABANY continued exploring its theme of “Speak Up, Rise Up, Lift Up” by presenting and participating in programs that revisit and reflect on important moments in APA history, examine the impact of such histories on the future of APAs in the legal community and community at large, and gather members of those communities in order to explore ways in which we can speak up, rise up and lift up one another.

Special Events

May 11, 2016 The AABANY Trial Reenactment Team, led by Hon. Denny Chin and Kathy Hirata Chin, proudly presented Vietnamese Fishermen’s Association v. Knights of the Ku Klux Klan at Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft LLP.

Panels and CLEs

May 11, 2016 AABANY member Judge Pamela Chen (United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York) led a conversation about diversity and racial balancing in the judiciary, academia, and other environments at Debevoise & Plimpton’s APA Heritage Month Luncheon.

May 16, 2016 The Judiciary Committee held Part IV of its Bootcamp Series, Roadmap to the Bench: Endorsements inside the 308at156 Art Gallery at the offices of Lee Anav Chung White Kim Ruger & Richter LLP.

May 18, 2016 Part II of Group Mentoring, a workshop series dedicated to developing the leadership potential of young attorneys, was led by Steve Chung, VP of News for NBCUniversal Media, LLC and former AABANY Board member, and held at Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP.

Court for the Eastern District of New York.

Before attending the DCF, Kevin looked for his next job as he had looked for many prior internships and jobs, i.e., primarily through online job postings. The DCF provided Kevin with a very different approach—the opportunity to meet with prospective employers face-to-face, to participate in interviews, and to connect with AABANY mentors who gave him advice regarding the job search process and his future career development. This new approach proved to be a huge success.

After interviewing with employers at the 2015 Diversity Career Fair, Kevin will proudly be joining the Brooklyn District Attorney's Office this fall as an Assistant District Attorney. Kevin deeply appreciates the help and support of AABANY in setting up the next stage of his legal career. Today Kevin is actively involved with the Career Placement Committee as its Co-Vice President of Programs.

About the DCF

The DCF at the Fall Conference features selected public sector, corporate, and law firm employers who host informational sessions, meet and greet interested applicants, and in some instances, conduct first round on-site interviews. In addition, DCF attendees will have an opportunity to meet members of the Career Placement Committee, receive career advice, and learn more about other job openings. For questions about the DCF, please email fall.conference@aabany.org. To learn more about the Career Placement Committee, contact careers@aabany.org. ♦

Finally, join us for a Cocktail Reception, where we will announce the recipient of this year's Norman Lau Kee Trailblazer Award, which honors an accomplished APA leader in the legal profession who has carved a path for others to follow, served the community as a mentor and role model, and has made a lasting impact on the APA community through his or her dedication and commitment.
