ISSA MEMBERSHIP ELECTS W. PIERRE PELTIER 2011-2012 PRESIDENT

During its 49th Annual Convention held in Tucson, Arizona, the membership of the International Slurry Surfacing Association (ISSA) elected W. Pierre Peltier, Terry Asphalt Materials, Inc., Nashville, Tennessee, to the office of President for the 2011-2012 term.

Pierre is the General Manager for Marketing and Business Development for Terry Asphalt Materials, Inc. He started in the Slurry Seal & Micro Surfacing industry in 1975 in the sand and gravel industry. He has worked for Ballou Construction Company, Koch Pavement Solutions, SemMaterials and Road Science. Pierre has served on the International Slurry Surfacing Association's Board of Directors for the past seven years and has chaired numerous committees.

Other 2011-2012 officers elected were:

- Vice President – Doug Ford, Pavement Coatings Company, Cypress, California
- Secretary – Christine Deneuvillers, Colas SA, France
- Treasurer – Eric Reimschiessel, American Pavement Preservation, Las Vegas, Nevada
- Past President – Tim Harrawood, Vance Brothers Inc., Conway, Arkansas

A complete list of the ISSA 2011- 2012 Board of Directors and committee chairs is attached.

The International Slurry Surfacing Association is an international non-profit trade association comprised of slurry & micro surfacing, chip seal, and crack treatment contractors, equipment manufacturers, public officials, research personnel, consulting engineers and associated industry interests, working together to promote the increased and more efficient use of slurry, micro surfacing, chip seal and crack treatments in roadway pavements.
