New Podcast Episode on SNMA’s The Lounge

September: Mind Your Mental Health

In this episode, we discuss the importance of maintaining mental health as a healthcare professional, and how medical culture can contribute to poor mental health among physicians. We also interview Dr. Roxann Clarke, certified in Podiatric Medicine and Reconstructive Foot and Ankle surgery, where she discusses her journey into podiatry and how her career connects to her business. Then, step into our Financial Corner for some financial management tips. You won't want to miss this! Disclaimer: The opinion and views expressed on our podcast do not reflect the official stance of Student National Medical Association.

The Lounge is a space for SNMA to deliver on its mission through collaborations and engagement on student-led topics. In our second season, we are looking forward to providing folks with relevant conversation, hot topics, and current events surrounding people underrepresented in medicine. New Episodes Drop Monthly on Spotify and Apple Podcasts! Interested in sponsoring an episode? Email us here!
