

Transformative Leadership for a Sustainable Energy Future

LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE, ENERGY AWARDS AND
CENTENARY CELEBRATION

Day 1 WEDNESDAY, 6 NOVEMBER 2024

- |       |                                                                                                                         |
|-------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 08H00 | Registration and refreshments                                                                                           |
| 09H00 | Welcome and opening of proceedings                                                                                      |
| 09H10 | Welcome, context setting and opening remarks:Kiren Maharaj, SANEA Chairperson                                       |
| 09H30 | Keynote Address:Charting the Course: Transformative leadership to evolve the energy sector                          |
| 10H00 | Session 1: Expert Panel Discussion:Visionary leadership in South Africa: Shaping Our Ideal Future                   |
| 11H00 | Networking and refreshment break                                                                                        |
| 11H30 | Keynote Address:Transformative leadership in Business: Building a Purpose-Driven and Sustainable Organization       |
| 12H00 | Session 2: Roundtable Discussion:Profit with Purpose: Navigating Dilemmas with Resilience and Purpose               |
| 13H00 | Networking lunch                                                                                                        |
| 14H00 | Session 3: Expert Panel Discussion:Agile and Effective Governance: Fostering Accountability in Corporate Leadership |
| 15H00 | Session 4: Roundtable Discussion:Ethics as a key attribute of transformative leadership                             |
| 16H00 | SANEA's Centenary Celebration                                                                                    |

Transformative Leadership for a Sustainable Energy Future

LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE, ENERGY AWARDS AND
CENTENARY CELEBRATION

Day 2 THURSDAY, 7 NOVEMBER 2024

|       |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|-------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 07H00 | Arrival refreshments                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| 08H00 | SANEA Energy Awards 2024                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| 10H30 | Networking and refreshment break                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 11H00 | Keynote AddressCollaboration for Transformative Leadership: Partnering for Sustainable Development                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 11H30 | Session 5: Fireside ChatCollaborative Horizons: Co-Creating Sustainable Growth for South Africa                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| 12H00 | Keynote AddressResilient Leadership: Lessons from "Leading with Purpose: Aligning Business Goals with Societal Impact for Economic Growth"                                                                                                                                                                          |
| 12H30 | Fireside Chat:The Power of Youth Leadership: Transforming challenges into opportunities                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| 13H00 | Networking lunch                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 14H00 | Session 6: Expert Panel DiscussionExploring AI-Human Leadership Dynamics: Initiatives and Policies for Navigating the Energy Sector                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| 15H00 | A First of its Kind ... The Changing Role of Leadership in Today's VUCA worldA townhall with South Africa's most senior and eminent energy and related sector leaders ... In a conversation on leadership journeys, leadership lessons and using the energy sector opportunities to realign growth and development. |
| 16H45 | Wrap up and Closing                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |

