

SPR's 48th Annual Meeting will be held in TORONTO, Ontario, Canada from June 21- 24, 2017.

The local organizing committee is delighted to host you all next year in Toronto. The city is continental gateway and international crossroads where people love to meet. Toronto is one of the world's most cosmopolitan cities - warm, welcoming, chic, elegant and vibrant, Toronto is a city that celebrates life in all dimensions.

As one of the most multicultural cities in the world, Toronto is enriched by an exciting fusion of traditions, passions, flavours and perspectives of the over 100 cultures that live here. Global cultural influences converge with that unique dash of Toronto hospitality and flair, resulting in an amazing line-up of spectacular event venues, hotels, over 9,000 restaurants, fashion, entertainment, culture, arts, shopping, attractions, events, festivals, neighbourhoods and architecture. Nightlife and entertainment abound with 200 dance and theatre companies offering everything from mega-musicals to avant-garde works.

A city of contrasts, Toronto's skyline features a juxtaposition of glittering skyscrapers, the CN Tower (a Modern Wonder of the World), historic facades, beautiful parks, miles of waterfront, boardwalks and trails.

Beyond city limits are breathtaking attractions such as Niagara Falls, a renowned wine region, outstanding theatres and outdoor adventures—all within a short drive.

Please watch our website for details on travel, accommodations and the conference venue at the University of Toronto.

We can't wait to welcome you next year. See you in Toronto in 2017!
Jeanne, Lynne, Shelley, Alberta, Tali and Evelyn