About the STC:

As a member of the Synthetic Turf Council (STC), you'll receive a host of benefits that will make a difference in your company. Reasons to join are as vast and varied as the resources and services the STC provides its members.

Founded on the basic premise of promoting the synthetic turf industry, the STC has grown dramatically in size and scope. Representing a major cross section of the marketplace in North America, the STC has become the effective and trusted voice of the synthetic turf industry and has established itself as a solid self-governing body - regularly disseminating factual, objective, independent information and research.

Stay in touch and add value and help define the future of synthetic turf in North America with your membership in the Synthetic Turf Council. For more information, visit www.syntheticturfCouncil.org or contact STC Headquarters at 678-385-6720.
