

Help them protect their education with Tuition Insurance.

A college education is one of the biggest investments your students will ever make. Help them protect it with Tuition Insurance from Liberty Mutual.

For more than 100 years, Liberty Mutual Insurance has protected what people hold most dear. Now we offer that same solid commitment to your students' tuition investment.

Our expanded coverage provides greater peace of mind to undergraduate students, graduate students, and their families. Here's how it works:

Reimbursement: If a student withdraws from school at any time during the semester, 100% of their tuition, room and board, and some fees will be reimbursed to them!

Coverage: For as little as 1% of the cost of tuition, our policies will cover a wide range of possible reasons for withdrawal, including accidental injuries, illnesses, anxiety, depression, and more. Coverage is also available for students studying abroad.²

Customization: Insurance can be purchased for a single semester or a full year, and customized to a specific insured amount of the student's choosing.

Service: Customers have access to industry-leading insurance experts who can answer all of their policy, coverage, and claims questions.
