On July 1, 2018, the first round of amendments to the Ontario Construction Lien Act – including its new name, the Construction Act, came into force. A second round of amendments will come into force on October 1, 2019.

All litigators who deal with construction law matters should join us for a practical program on how these changes to the Construction Lien Act will affect your clients' businesses and your practice. Hear from construction law practitioners and the construction lien Master at Toronto.

- Compare and contrast the old and the new Act, including procedure and forms;
