The articling experience introduces challenges unique to the role of both the articling student and articling principal. This program is designed to enhance the appreciation of actual or potential articling principals and students for those challenges, including:

- The pressures faced by articling students
- How to recognize and handle ethical and client-management issues (using two case studies)
- How to deal with unreasonable expectations
- How to handle the first court or tribunal appearance.

Join our speakers who range in experience from 30+ years to a more recent call!

Speakers: David Elmaleh, McCague Borlack LLP
Ted Laan, Laan Litigation
Wade Morris, Litigation Counsel
Robert P. Sullivan, Sullivan Law
