Palliative Care & Home Health: Transforming the Value Driven Journey: Person Centered Decision Making & Advanced Care Planning / 1.50 CE

Cindy Campbell, MHA-Healthcare Informatics, BSN, RN, Senior Director Advisor & Katherine Morrison, MSN, RN, CHPN – Director of Hospice Consulting Operations, WellSky

As the contemporary Japanese writer Haruki Murakami noted: "Death is not the opposite of life, but a part of it." Planning for smooth transition into end-of-life care often occurs in home health, due to a lack of confidence and competence incorporating advance directive conversations into practice. Building this skill ensures that patients' preferences are honored, promoting a person-centered decision-making approach to care.

Advance care planning has been proven to significantly increase hope for patients and their families, as well as improve clinical outcomes related to decreasing avoidable hospitalization. A value-add for every service line in care at home, learning the how-to's within advance care planning will help your organization advocate for foundational continuum-based support as a patient and family face the ultimate progression of disease – end of life.

Learning objectives: • Explain the importance of communication regarding disease progression and advance care planning • Describe suggested methodology for conducting an advance directive conversation • Discuss how effective advance care planning can yield better outcomes within HHVBP

Hospice Special Focus Program (SFP) & Provisional Period of Enhanced Oversight (PPEO) / 1.00 CE

Melinda A. Gaboury, COS-C, CEO, Healthcare Provider Solutions

Major scrutiny of the Hospice Benefit is well underway nationwide. This session will review the details of both programs and what Hospices can expect. The Special Focus Program (SFP), will monitor hospices identified as poor performers based on selected quality indicators. Hospices selected for the SFP will be under additional oversight to enable continuous improvement. This required program includes the development and implementation of enforcement remedies for noncompliant hospice programs, as well as procedures for appealing determinations regarding these remedies. These enforcement actions can be imposed instead of, or in addition to, termination of the hospice program's participation from the Medicare program. Through the PPEO, new providers or suppliers are subject to prepayment medical reviews designed to address improper billing practices right out of the gate. This program is for newly certified hospices as well as change of ownership. This is a must attend session.

PSSA: Where Did the Money Go? Strategies for Protecting Your Clients & Your Agency from Financial Fraud & Abuse

David Young, MBA, Executive Chair & Co-Founder, SpendCare, Inc.

Financial fraud and abuse are a significant challenge for seniors and the family and professional caregivers who support them. A recent study by the AARP estimated that over 28 billion dollars is stolen from U.S. seniors each year and the National Adult Protective Services Association found that seniors' mortality risk is increased threefold when they are the victims of financial fraud/abuse. In this presentation we will provide an overview of common scams (ex. lottery, romance, tech support scams) and sources of financial fraud and abuse (family/friends, solicitors, professional caregivers). The mechanics of these schemes will be discussed as well as best practices for preventing financial fraud and abuse, detecting early warning signs and intervening safely and effectively. A special emphasis will be placed on how home care agencies can mitigate and manage the risk of professional caregiver fraud/abuse and the risk of clients forgetting personal shopping requests. A model for avoiding reputational harm, law enforcement involvement, and the loss of the client as a customer and the caregiver as an employee will also be discussed.
