USABDA PROFILE
FOCUS ON USABDA MEMBERS
- ALANA ALEXANDER-

For Alana, dancing started when most children are just learning to climb the jungle gym. At three years of age, she was taking ballet. That lasted for ten years. Then, in college, she took modern dance.

She had a bit of a break from dancing until she started at Fred Astaire studios several years ago. She participated in studio competitions there.

After that, Alana went to the Arthur Murray Studio in Edina but is currently taking lessons in the downtown studio. She has participated in studio competitions, at a Minnesota Open and performed at the Wisconsin Dells, where she took "Top Student" award.

Her goal for dancing is to compete in a major national competition.

Professionally, she has an impressive goal also. She is a medical technologist and is taking sign language. Her hope is to become an interpreter in a health care facility.

Alana's interests are varied. She was on the ski patrol at Trollhaugen (Dresser, Wisconsin) for seventeen years. She also enjoys calligraphy, reading and knitting.

TASTE TEST SUCCESSFUL

David Schmit, USABDA member who coordinated the Taste Test, thanks every one who participated -- and helped support USABDA activities. The money, which USABDA made, will be used to buy a computer.

PROFESSIONAL P
 SARAH LOBLEY R

Sarah's introduction to dance came at an early age, having taken lessons as a child in ballet, jazz and modern dance.

She became interested in ballroom dance when she took a summer job at a studio in Indianapolis. When she came to the Twin Cities, she interviewed at the Fred Astaire studio in Bloomington and trained with Scott Anderson. Sarah moved to the Minnetonka studio when it opened. After two years, she returned to the Bloomington studio and stayed there for five more years as an instructor.

In January 1992, Sarah opened the Fred Astaire studio in Roseville. She has done ballroom competitions with her students. For the future, she and her dance partner, Dana Bahnsen, are preparing for their first professional contest at the Twin Cities Open dance competition in January 1995.

Sarah says that teaching students, training staff and, now, preparing for a competition consumes most of her time.

USABDA MAY DANCE

We thank all of you who attended our May dance at the Twin Cities Ballroom, featuring a showcase by Timothy Mason and Michele Chard. The show was wonderful and dancers enjoyed their lessons before the dance.

WHAT IS USABDA? WHO ARE WE?

USABDA stands for the United States Amateur Ballroom Dancers Association, a non-profit organization formed to preserve and promote ballroom dancing, not only as an art, but as a healthy sport. Minnesota's chapter was started in 1991.

Membership in USABDA is open to ballroom dancers of all levels. There are membership categories for all dancers: Social, Competitive, Junior (17 yrs & under), College students and Associate (professional/instructor).

USABDA sponsors a monthly dance and other special dance events. Membership includes both national and local dues. Membership entitles you to discounts on our monthly dances, a monthly newsletter and a great network for meeting other dancers.

You'll have fun dancing and meet many new friends! For more information, call the USABDA Hotline number.

DANCE DIRECTORY TO BE PUBLISHED

Where can you go dancing in the Twin Cities? Where can you take dance lessons?

These two questions will be answered in a directory, soon to be published by USABDA. Marilyn Ronan, Assistant Newsletter Editor, has headed a committee to obtain and compile information which will be of help to dancers, especially new dancers. We will also use the directory as a means of "spreading the word" about USABDA -- and dancing.

The Directory of Ballrooms and Ballroom Dance Instruction will be a pocket size, easy for both men and women to carry around. It includes the name and location of ballrooms and dance studios in the Twin City area, as well as names of instructors who teach various types of ballroom dancing. You'll also find a list of ballrooms in Greater Minnesota and some tips on dance etiquette.

All members will receive a personal copy. We'll have copies to give out at dance demos, during National Ballroom Dance Week, to college dance clubs, etc.--anywhere where interested dancers may be.

Our goal is to have them printed so we can give them out at the Tea Dance in June. Our plan is to update the directory annually.

STAR OF THE NORTH

Each USABDA member should have received a registration form in the mail for the Star of the North Dance Competition, to be held on June 25 at the Fred Reed Hall, 121 N. Broadway, Rochester, as part of the Star of the North State Games.

This "fun" dance competition, which is open to all levels of dancers and all ages, will run approximately from 11 am to 4 pm. Categories include: Smooth--Foxtrot, Waltz and Tango for all divisions and Viennese Waltz (advanced only); Latin/Rhythm--Cha cha, Rumba and East Coast Swing for all divisions, Sambo, Mambo and Merengue for intermediate and advanced only, Bolero (advanced only); Open--West Coast Swing; Country--Two step, Three step and Waltz.

If you need entry information, call 507/287-2277 in Rochester, 612/785-5678 in the Twin Cities or 1-800-756-7827 from Greater Minnesota. Entry deadline is June 13.

The USABDA Formation Team will perform as part of the closing ceremonies after the dance competition.

Even if you choose not to participate in the competition, you may wish to drive to Rochester to support the dancers and enjoy the day! An all-event pass is only $5, which allows you admission to any of the other 24 sport events which may be going on that day.

"GOOD NEWS" -- DANCING AT THE MAJESTIC BALLROOM ... We will receive $1.00 discount for the ballroom dances when we show our USABDA membership card:

Blaine. The MASA includes representatives from 75 different sports--ranging from archery to yachting.

Ballroom dancing was added in 1992 after I attended some meetings and convinced them that dancing was indeed a viable "sport". That got our foot in the door for the state games.

Forty five states hold these annual Olympic-style events for amateurs--only Minnesota and Hawaii have accepted dancing, as far as I know.

When USABDA accepted the invitation to take the lead in the 1993 Minnesota Star of the North State Games--and Kathy Pouliot and other volunteers took over--ballroom dance became a highlight! The selection committee was truly pleased with the outcome of our dance adventure at the Bel Rae Ballroom -- and the great dance program in the 80-mile wind for their opening ceremony! You all did it!

I started to correspond in late 1993 with the Rochester Star of the North selection committee to be sure they also included dance. I also contacted the Rochester USABDA Chapter. They took over just like you did. The success of the 1994 event depends on spreading the word to get dancers to compete.

How are we going to be successful in Mankato in 1995 without a USABDA chapter? Can we help get one started?
