

SPECIAL FOCUS CONFERENCE

Families: Complex Beginnings

Saturday 22 June 2019

The School of Infant Mental Health is pleased to present four workshops by clinicians and experts, who will present in areas of extreme interest for Parent-Infant Psychotherapy

These workshops will explore the following topics:

Working with same-gender parents • Working with parents undertaking IVF • Supporting parents through the loss of a child • Supporting children with parents with mental health difficulties

Speakers

Sarah Hagger-Holt – Campaigns and Communities Manager at Stonewall

Understanding and supporting LGBT families

Liz Andersen – Perinatal Psychotherapist

In the shadow of grief: Perinatal psychotherapy with women and families during a pregnancy following the death of a baby

Ann Herreboudt – Psychoanalytic Parent Infant Psychotherapist/ Pre and Perinatal Midwife

Inconceivable: the journey through fertility investigations and treatments

Dympna Cunnane - Chief Executive, “Our Time” charity

Parental mental illness and its impact on the children

Venue: Langorf Hotel,
20 Frognal, London
NW3 6AG

Time: 11.30am to 4pm

Cost: £95, concessions apply to students and NHS staff members. Full-time SIMH trainees do not pay.

CPD: Credits available

To book a place, please call

020 7433 3112 or email

enquiries@infantmentalhealth.com

Do join us for what will be a fascinating day