NATIONAL WASTE AND RECYCLING ASSOCIATION RE-ELECTS SCOTT DOLS AS CHAIRMAN AND EDDIE WESTMORELAND AS TREASURER OF NWRA BOARD OF TRUSTEES

WasteBuilt CEO Greg Podell and O’Brian Tarping President Sean O’Brian Elected to NWRA Suppliers’ Board of Governors

(WASHINGTON, DC)—March 29, 2016—The National Waste & Recycling Association (NWRA) today announced its Board of Trustees has re-elected Scott Dols, CEO of Big Truck Rental as Chairman of the Board and Eddie Westmoreland, Regional Vice President of Waste Connections as Treasurer for the association. In addition, NWRA’s Suppliers’ Board of Governors elected Greg Podell, CEO of Wastebuilt Environmental and Sean O’Brian President of O’Brian Tarping to serve on that body.

“NWRA has been on the move,” commented Scott Dols, chairman of the NWRA Board of Trustees. “Last year we marked tremendous progress and transformation under a three year strategic plan, and we are now implementing our next three year plan that builds on the foundation we have laid with a focus on safety in our industry and advocacy at the Federal, state and local level. I am honored to serve the association for another year to oversee implementation of our plan. I look forward to working again with Eddie Westmoreland, NWRA Treasurer, as well as with the rest of our Board.”

Dols and Westmoreland have served on the Board of Trustees for last two years as Chairman and Treasurer, respectively.

“We are pleased that industry leaders Greg Podell and Sean O’Brian have been elected to the NWRA Supplier Board of Governors,” commented Michael Savage, president and chief executive officer of PTR Baler and chairman of the NWRA Board of Supplier Governors. “Their breadth of experience and insights are welcome additions to an already active and engaged board whose work is focused on the unique needs of the wide range of companies who provide the tools and technologies that power the waste and recycling industry.
