Legislative & Regulatory Advocacy

NWRA is the leading voice at the federal, state, and local levels on legislative and regulatory issues, working to improve the business climate for our industry and progressively make our industry safer, smarter and stronger. We currently have 30 chapters in 29 states. As a member you have access to all chapters your company does business in.

Build Your Network

Attend member-only chapter, local and national events to network with members and industry leaders, meet new customers and help your business thrive.

NWRA Councils and Committees offer members the ability to focus on specific areas of interest within the industry. NWRA's Safety Committee, Future Industry Leadership Alliance, Healthcare Waste Institute, Landfill Institute, Recycling Committee, and Women's Council are all highly active groups and open to all NWRA members.

Education, Information & Market Statistics

NWRA's highly attended and in demand webinars focus on topics and trends important to our members.

Newsletters, industry reports and educational sessions keep you informed about the latest trends and help you make informed business decisions.

NWRA's market statistics and data program provides economic trend analysis and forecasts for your industry, helping you gauge your company's performance and develop better business plans.

NWRA's ANSI safety standards and driver safety certification programs lead the industry in innovation and set the industry's performance standards in all 50 states.

Savings & Discounts

Many members report that the money saved by being a member more than covers the cost of annual dues. Our member savings program provides discounts on services that you use to run your business every day. Members also receive discounts on publications and events, including WasteExpo, North America's largest solid waste and recycling trade show.

Members save at WasteExpo: 12% in booths between 100 - 200 sq/ft, 13.3% on booths 300 - 5,000 sq/ft, 16% on booths 5,000+ sq/ft

10% of your spend on exhibits and advertising on Waste360 will also go to your NWRA membership dues!

Waste Industry Marketplace

The Waste Industry Marketplace is a free program that encourages NWRA members to do business with other members whenever possible. This program delivers a new level of value by directly connecting members with special offers and promotions from other NWRA member companies.

Economic Reports

The NWRA Statistics and Standards program provides members with Monthly Economic Advisor reports, an economic analysis and data on the waste and recycling industry. Each day more information is being developed with service members in mind ranging from safety information and business demographics to waste stream information and more.

Safety, Certification & Standards Programs

NWRA's Safety Committee is dedicated to bold, strategic efforts focused on best in-class safety performance.

NWRA's Safety Monday e-newsletter, safety manuals, and seminars help you train your personnel to reduce injuries and fatalities.

NWRA's ANSI safety standards set performance standards for waste and recycling equipment and facilities in all 50 states.

NWRA's certification program will support your education efforts. It recognizes proficiency in driver safety and can reduce your liability and costs.

Awards

NWRA's awards programs are a great way to acknowledge your top employees. The Driver of the Year Award honors the best and safest drivers in the industry. Other awards include Hall of Fame, Recycling Awards, Member of the Year, and Women's Council Scholarships.
