

WCET® AT A GLANCE

The leading global organisation dedicated to professional nursing in the field of ostomy, wound and continence care.

WCET® was founded in 1978 by Norma N. Gill and other international ET/ostomy, wound and continence care experts from 15 countries.

WCET® has members in over 65 countries and on every continent.

WCET® supports and promotes educational programs around the world (ETNEPs and REPs).

WCET® educational programs improve the care of thousands of patients worldwide through the specialised knowledge and skills given by our members.

WCET® provides the latest information on clinical practice, educational programs, international support network and its collective global knowledge and experience.

WCET® is the international voice for ET/ostomy, wound and continence care nursing.
