AZAHARA MUÑOZ TO BE INDUCTED INTO THE WGCA PLAYERS HALL OF FAME

FRISCO, TX (October 19th) – The Women's Golf Coaches Association (WGCA) is proud to announce that former Arizona State University standout Azahara Muñoz will be inducted into the WGCA Players Hall of Fame as part of the 2027 WGCA Hall of Fame Class. The induction ceremony will take place on Monday, December 7, at Planet Hollywood Resort in Las Vegas, Nevada, during the annual WGCA Convention. Muñoz will become the 92nd member of the WGCA Players Hall of Fame, recognizing her exceptional achievements and lasting contributions to the game of golf.

A decorated competitor, Muñoz has built a remarkable career defined by championship success at the amateur, collegiate, and professional levels. Her early accomplishments included winning Spain's under-18, under-21, and amateur championships in 2002, followed by European under-16 individual and team titles in 2003. She also helped Spain capture three consecutive European under-18 team championships from 2001 through 2003 and a European Team Championship in 2007.

Muñoz continued her amateur success with victories at the British Girls Championship in 2004 and the British Women's Amateur Championship in 2009, along with a runner-up finish at the 2008 U.S. Women's Amateur. As a student-athlete at Arizona State University, she captured the 2008 NCAA Individual Championship and helped the Sun Devils win both the NCAA and Pac-10 team championships in 2009. She was a two-time Edith Cummings Munson Award winner, given by the WGCA.

After transitioning to professional golf, Muñoz earned LPGA Rookie of the Year honors in 2010. Her professional career includes five Ladies European Tour victories and one LPGA Tour title, reflecting her success on both sides of the Atlantic.

Muñoz has also represented her country and continent at the highest levels of international competition. She helped Spain win the 2014 International Crown, represented Europe in four Solheim Cups, and competed for Spain in three Olympic Games. Her achievements across every stage of her career have established her as one of Spain's most accomplished golfers.

About the Women's Golf Coaches Association

The Women's Golf Coaches Association, founded in 1983, is a non-profit organization representing women's collegiate golf coaches. The WGCA was formed to encourage the playing of college golf for women in correlation with a general objective of education and in accordance with the highest tradition of intercollegiate competition. Today, the WGCA represents over 750 coaches throughout the U.S. and is dedicated to educating, promoting and recognizing both its members and the student-athletes they represent.
