2025-26 WGCA ALL-SCHOLAR TEAM GPA AWARD ANNOUNCED

FRISCO, Texas (July 23, 2026) – The Women's Golf Coaches Association (WGCA) has announced the recipients of the 2025-26 WGCA All-Scholar Team GPA Award for all divisions. The award recognizes the women's collegiate golf program with the highest collective average team GPA, which includes all the team's student-athletes for the 2025-26 season.

In Division I, Houston Christian University came out on top with a 3.947 GPA; they had eight players on the team. Leading Division II was Catawba College, as the team's six players averaged a 3.843 GPA. At the Division III level, Carleton College came in first place with a 3.842 GPA and had seven players. In NAIA, Wayland Baptist's team of five players led the division with a GPA of 3.881. Lastly, Northeast Mississippi College topped the NJCAA with a 3.949 GPA.

The WGCA also announced the top 25 teams with the highest team GPA for Division I, Division II and Division III, as well as the top 10 teams for NAIA. They are as follows:

About the Women's Golf Coaches Association

The Women's Golf Coaches Association, founded in 1983, is a non-profit organization representing women's collegiate golf coaches. The WGCA was formed to encourage the playing of college golf for women in correlation with a general objective of education and in accordance with the highest tradition of intercollegiate competition. Today, the WGCA represents over 750 coaches throughout the U.S. and is dedicated to educating, promoting and recognizing both its members and the student-athletes they represent.
