

MARIE-LOUISE MORTENSEN

Vice President, Strategy & Business Development, Universal Filmed Entertainment Group

In her role, Marie-Louise is responsible for the development of long-term global strategy for Universal Pictures' divisions, providing financial and strategic support in evaluating cross-divisional business development initiatives, including organic and investment-driven growth opportunities. Marie-Louise started her career as an Investment Banking Analyst and later Associate with Morgan Stanley in London, UK. She currently resides in LA with her husband.