The Women Lawyers Association of Los Angeles hosted a record-setting 600 guests at its annual awards and installation dinner Wednesday at the Omni Los Angeles Hotel. Several lawyers were honored for their public service and commitment to women's issues. They are, above from left, Meredith Blake, executive vice president of Participant Productions; John Schulman, general counsel of Warner Bros. Entertainment; and Antonia Hernandez, president and chief executive officer of the California Community Foundation. At right, Jennifer A. Landau, who was sworn in as the group's new president, poses with Dominique R. Shelton, the immediate past president.
