COAL IS KING IN CAMPBELL COUNTY

Campbell County is one of the largest coal producers, and is known as the “Energy Capital of the Nation”.

More coal is produced in the State of Wyoming than any other state in America. The Powder River Basin in Campbell County supplies 30% of the coal used in the U.S. and contains the largest deposits of coal in the world.

COME EXPLORE ANOTHER ONE OF WYOMING’S GREAT ASSETS TO THE TOURISM INDUSTRY!

FREE TOUR OF THE EAGLE BUTTE COAL MINE

Tuesday, October 7, 2014
1:30 pm – 3:30 pm
Gillette Visitor Center
1810 S. Douglas Hwy, Suite A
Gillette, Wyoming
(Tour will begin and end at the Gillette Visitor Center)

REGISTRATION REQUIRED
Space is Limited!
(Please Use the Fall Summit Registration Form to Sign Up for This Tour)