Implicit Bias CLE Opportunity Announced:

INDIANAPOLIS (January 20, 2020) – The United States District Court for the Southern District of Indiana will host a training session for attorneys on implicit bias on Friday, March 6, 2020. This 90-minute training will take place from 1 p.m. to 2:30 p.m. in the William E. Steckler Ceremonial Courtroom (Courtroom 202), located in the Birch Bayh Federal Building and United States Courthouse, 46 East Ohio Street, Indianapolis, IN, 46204.

The program will be presented by Preshuslee Thompson from the Kirwan Institute for the Study of Race and Ethnicity. The goal of the training session is to equip attorneys with a deeper understanding of unconscious mental processing, the ways in which these implicit associations impact our decision-making despite good intentions, and what actions can be taken to prevent and respond to the emergence of bias. The event will focus on implicit bias in the legal environment and provide actionable steps that attorneys can implement to combat this bias. The CLE will be of benefit to both new and experienced attorneys. Opening remarks will be given by Chief Judge Jane E. Magnus-Stinson.

This event is sponsored by the 7th Circuit Bar Association and is pending ninety minutes of Continuing Legal Education credit. Pre-registration IS required and available by (PROVIDE INSTRUCTIONS). There is no cost to attend. For more information, contact Mary Giorgio at 317-229-3711 or mary_giorgio@insd.uscourts.gov.
