

American Escrow Association

Carlye Buxton

Carlye Buxton, SASIP, CSEO, CEO

I began my Escrow journey in 1997; I have risen through the ranks from Escrow Receptionist to Escrow Officer and am celebrating my 14-year-anniversary with Fidelity National Title Agency.

I joined the Arizona State Escrow Association in 2003 and have earned the professional designations of Certified Escrow Officer in 2008, Certified Senior Escrow Officer in 2014 and Senior American Settlement Industry Professional in 2016. I served as President of the Arizona State Escrow Association from 2009 to 2010, as an AEA State Director from 2007 to 2010, Alternate State Director from 2015 to 2016, Treasurer of the American Escrow Association for the 2016-2017 year, and am currently serving as 2nd Vice President of the American Escrow Association.

Supporting and encouraging my escrow life, are my husband Ken and our two beautiful daughters, Ivy and Luci. We love to travel, go to the movies, concerts, and the theater. I also enjoy reading, having dinner with friends and family, and trivia games.

"Perfection is not attainable, but if we chase perfection we can catch excellence." - Vince Lombardi