AAACE Public Affairs Committee: A Policy Invocation

Desired Impact Statement

AAACE Public Affairs Committee (PAC) Chair Ellen Scully-Russ and member Lee Nabb put forth the paper entitles “AAACE Public Affairs Committee: A Policy Invocation,” for the intended purposes of informing members of the existence of the PAC and its basic functions of promoting policy discourse, illuminating why policy discourse and activity in the field of adult education is important, and providing information on how members can begin participating. The intended impact is to produce a more informed and active AAACE membership regarding adult education policy.

Initiators: Lee Nabb
          Ellen Scully-Russ

Recommendations for Distribution:

Posting the paper on the designated PAC website and sharing with other organizations as the AAACE Board sees fit.
