I. STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

The Asian American Bar Association of New York (“AABANY” or the “Association”) was formed in 1989 as a not-for-profit corporation to represent the interests of New York State Asian-American attorneys, judges, law professors, legal professionals, legal assistants or paralegals and law students. The mission of AABANY is to improve the study and practice of law, and the fair administration of justice for all by ensuring meaningful participation of Asian-Americans (with particular emphasis on those in New York State) in the legal profession. AABANY is formed as a corporation within Section 501(c)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”). Under the Code, Section 501(c)(6) corporations include business leagues, chambers of commerce, real-estate boards, boards of trade, or professional football leagues, not organized for profit and no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual.

II. FUNDING GUIDELINES FOR EXTERNAL PROGRAMS

A. Overview

From time to time, AABANY receives applications for funding from organizations such as bar associations, law student organizations, community-based organizations and other organizations. While AABANY continues to fund internally generated programs, AABANY also seeks to identify and support external programs whose educational or charitable missions are consistent with those of AABANY.

The Board of Directors of AABANY (the “Board”) exercises general management of the affairs of AABANY, and is charged with the duty of conducting such affairs in a manner consistent with the purpose of AABANY, and in conformity with the policy that, in all activities of AABANY, the promotion of the public interest and those of AABANY are to be primary and paramount. The Board may authorize, from time to time, in AABANY’s then effective annual budget, an aggregate annual amount to be allocated towards discretionary third party funding requests for each Fiscal Year. A committee of AABANY officers (comprised of its Executive Director, President, President-elect, Immediate Past President, Vice President of Finance and Development and Treasurer) has been formed to review all funding request applications to AABANY (the “Funding Committee”). The Funding Committee will review all funding request applications and make a determination based on these Guidelines and the then Board approved annual budget. The following are AABANY’s funding guidelines for the grant of funds to applicants.

1. AABANY will only fund United States based organizations and programs which are consistent with the purposes of AABANY (including reciprocal benefits for AABANY) in the Board’s and Funding Committee’s discretion.

2. The primary geographic scope of coverage will be the State of New York, with a particular emphasis on and to the Greater New York Metropolitan Area, including New York City and its outer boroughs.
3. Subject to the availability of AABANY funds in the then Board approved annual budget, AABANY will give primary consideration to applications for:

(i) bar association programs of particular interest to the Asian American legal community; (ii) law school-sponsored Asian American student programs; (iii) community-based programs relating to legal matters; and (v) other programs consistent with the purposes of AABANY.

4. AABANY will not fund the following: (i) organizations which, in their constitution, bylaws or practices discriminate against persons or groups on the basis of age, race, national origin, ethnicity, gender, disability, sexual orientation, political affiliation or religious belief; or (ii) political or lobbying activities.

B. Application and Review Process

2. Applications should be submitted by mail, courier or email, but will only be considered “submitted” for AABANY’s review when it has been received by its Executive Director at the contact address or email address provided in Section 5 below. The application form is listed in Section 6 below.

3. If, following the Funding Committee’s review, the Funding Committee approves the organization’s application for funding, AABANY will contact the organization to confirm AABANY’s approval of the application and the amount of the funds to be provided by AABANY.

4. If the organization’s application for funding is approved by AABANY as aforesaid, the organization must provide a reasonably detailed summary and accounting of how AABANY’s grant to it was used along with a written certification that such grant was used by the organization for the purpose described in funding request application form to AABANY, in each case, within 30 days of the completion of the program for which the grant was provided.

5. Questions concerning AABANY, its purposes and the funding application process should be directed to AABANY’s Executive Director as follows: Yang Chen, Esq., Executive Director, Asian American Bar Association of New York, PO Box 3656, Grand Central Station, New York, NY 10163-3656; Telephone/Facsimile: (718) 228-7206; Email: yang.chen@aabany.org.
