HONORING ASIAN AMERICAN, NATIVE HAWAIIAN, and PACIFIC ISLANDER HERITAGE MONTH
YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED TO A VIRTUAL TOUR
of
THE JAPANESE AMERICAN NATIONAL MUSEUM

Tuesday, May 31, 2022
6:00 PM-7:20 PM

Join the Japanese American National Museum’s Education Unit in a special virtual experience on Tuesday, May 31st at 6:00 PM Eastern (3:00 PM Pacific). Anti-Asian hate is receiving a lot of attention and coverage at the moment, but these instances of violence and discrimination aren’t new. By exploring the powerful artifacts, images, and documents found in JANM’s collection, this session will root recent news stories of anti-Asian sentiment in a historical context. With a focus on the Japanese American experience, including a first-person account of World War II incarceration, this session will help participants gain a deeper understanding of the stereotypes and assumptions that can lead to a fracturing of American democracy.

The mission of the Japanese American National Museum is to promote understanding and appreciation of America’s ethnic and cultural diversity by sharing the Japanese American experience. Learn more at www.janm.org/
