THE BROOKLYN LEGAL PIPELINE INITIATIVE

The Brooklyn Legal Pipeline Initiative (BLPI) is designed to give diverse students who live or attend college in Brooklyn direct instruction on how to successfully apply to and fund a law school education. Each participant will be matched with an attorney mentor. Participants who attend all sessions will be offered an opportunity to obtain a non-paying summer internship. Stipends may be available to defray certain transportation and ancillary costs associated with the internships. This program is co-sponsored by the Brooklyn Women's Bar Association (BWBA), The Defense Association of New York (DANY) and the Brooklyn Bar Association (BBA).

Selected students will attend five (5) two-hour classroom sessions, once a month, starting in February 2017 that will be moderated by Paula Edgar, an attorney, diversity and inclusion coach and former law school administrator. Classes will be held at the Brooklyn Bar Association's landmark building located at 123 Remsen Street in downtown Brooklyn. These classes will be held from 5:30- 7:30 PM on the following dates and will address the following topics:

February 27, 2017 – The Legal Profession - What is a lawyer? What do they do? Panel discussion with judges and attorneys describing the areas in which they practice.

March 13, 2017 – Applying to Law School - Course selection- Time management – Writing skills – IRAC - The LSAT's – Paying for law school – Guided questions and answer session with a college career counselor and a law school admissions officer.

March 27, 2017 - Networking and Mentoring – Each participant will be paired with an Attorney Mentor - Developing a resume and cover letter.

April 24, 2017 - Internships –Interview Skills - Professionalism.

May 22, 2017- Mock Interviews - Each participant will participate in simulated interviews and will receive immediate constructive feedback.

SPONSORING BAR ASSOCIATIONS

Brooklyn Bar Association (BBA) - Established in 1872, the Brooklyn Bar Association's primary purpose is to promote professional competence among attorneys and increased respect for the legal system. The BBA promotes access to the legal system through a Lawyer Referral Service, which provides referrals for legal assistance in multiple practice areas. It advances leadership and promotes opportunities for success through networking opportunities and through sections and committees, which focus on improvements in the practice of law. The BBA provides Continuing Legal Education, which enhances the skills, competence and ethics of its members. The belief that the administration of justice is achieved through the integrity, honor and courtesy of the members of the legal profession is the foundation of this association.

The Defense Association of New York (DANY) has been serving New York's Defense Bar and legal community for over 50 years -- bringing together by association, communication, and organization attorneys and qualified non-attorneys in the state of New York who devote substantial professional time to the handling of litigated cases primarily for the defense. DANY is committed to improving the services of the legal profession, elevating the standard of trial practice, supporting and working for the improvement of the adversarial system of jurisprudence in our courts, and facilitating and expediting trial of disputed claims.

Brooklyn Women's Bar Association - The mission of the Brooklyn Women's Bar Association is to eliminate gender bias in the court, to acknowledge and advance the skills and status of women lawyers in the profession, and to promote, protect and further the rights of all women. The Brooklyn Women's Bar Association is a Chapter of WBASNY, the Women's Bar Association of the State of New York.
