After the Networking Event: Best Practices for Building and Maintaining Client Relationships

After networking, it's important to learn how to build and keep relationships. Come hear our great panel share ideas on attracting new clients, maintaining fruitful client relationships, and overcoming challenges that diverse female attorneys face in these endeavors.

This event is hosted by the New York Diversity Committee of BakerHostetler in partnership with the Muslim Bar Association of New York, the Association of Black Women Attorneys, the Metropolitan Black Bar Association, and the Asian American Bar Association of New York.
