

ELECTRONIC COURT REPORTER'S CREED

My profession stems from humanity's desire and its necessity to preserve the happenings of yesterday and tomorrow.

My profession was born with the rise of civilization in ancient Greece.

I was known as a scribe in Judea, Persia and the Roman Empire.

I preserved the Ten Commandments for posterity and was with King Solomon while building the temple.

I was with the founding fathers of the United States when they drafted the Declaration of Independence. My hand labored upon the scroll that set forth the Bill of Rights.

The immortal Abraham Lincoln entrusted me to record the Emancipation Proclamation.

I was commissioned to be with Roosevelt at Yalta. I was with Eisenhower on D-Day and with MacArthur at Tokyo.

I have kept confidence reposed with me by those in high places, as well as those in lowly places.

My profession protects the truthful witness, and I am a nemesis of the perjurer.

I am a party to the administration of justice under the law and the court I serve.

I discharge my duties with devotion and honor. Perhaps I haven't made history, but I have preserved it through the ages.

In the past I was called a scribe.

Today I am the electronic court reporter who sits in the legislative bodies of the cities and states of the United States.

I am the electronic court reporter that sits in the courts of my country.

Court Reporter's Blessing

Bless the skills of those who record
with accuracy the facts of the spoken word.

They assure that honor and justice prevail, performing their duties
with a devotion that never fails.

What greater mission on earth than to engage in a duty to record
the word of truth
on history's every page?
