Brian D. Lamkin was appointed by Governor Henry McMaster in April, 2017 to succeed Patrick J. Maley as the agency's Inspector General. Inspector General Lamkin has served as an investigator with the agency since 2013, in addition to serving as the Acting Inspector General prior to his appointment. Inspector General Lamkin served for more than 25 years with the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) as a Special Agent where he specialized in complex white collar crime investigations, in particular financial crimes and public corruption matters.

During his FBI career, he served in multiple senior executive assignments as Chief of the FBI's Financial Crimes Program, Special Agent in Charge of the FBI Atlanta and FBI Columbia field offices, and as Assistant Director in Charge of the FBI's Training Division at Quantico, VA. He is the 2010 recipient of the Presidential Rank Award for Meritorious Service with the FBI. He is a certified fraud examiner with the Association of Certified Fraud Examiners.
