

2019 AAGC Member Awards Nomination Form

Each year, the AAGC honors individuals who have exhibited outstanding service and dedication to the Association with the following Awards. These individuals have shown true commitment in promoting the Association, its mission and values. Please use the form below to submit your nomination. A brief nomination letter must be included describing the achievements and accomplishments of the nominee. All nominations will be reviewed by an independent panel for consideration.

All of the following must be met:

1. Must be employed by an AAGC member in good standing as of September 2019.
2. Must have actively served on at least one committee this year or either attended AAGC sponsored events.

Rock Star of the Year – This award is presented to the member superstar who has recently become active either by new membership or recent resurgence in the AAGC. Their passion and vigor have been displayed in Their participation and support to the betterment efforts of the industry and the AAGC.

Volunteer of the Year – This award is presented to the member who understands that growth and success are achieved by giving of oneself. This individual has donated countless hours of their time to support the AAGC charities, membership, committees, and the local community.

Industry Partner of the Year – This award is presented to the industry partner who has demonstrated and understands that attending AAGC meetings, volunteering with committees and charities associated with the AAGC is vital to the growth of the association and their industry. They are always present, lending their help and support when needed, regardless of whether they are on that committee or not. They are truly passionate about the industry they work in and always promote the AAGC.

Philanthropist of the Year – This award is presented to the individual who has gone above and beyond the call of duty not only for the association but also for the community. Accomplishments would include, but are not limited to the desire to promote the welfare of others, expressed especially by generous donations of monetary contributions, and service to the community through volunteer hours for the betterment of the community as it correlates to the AAGC.

Lustrum Award – As simply stated by the name of the award, Lustrum means five years of service. This award is presented to a member who has been active and supportive in the AAGC for a minimum of 5 years. This individual has gone above and beyond the call of duty for the association. They have served on multiple committees and been directly involved in the growth and betterment of the AAGC. This individual has never stopped supporting making our industry simply the best.

Lifetime Achievement Award – This award is presented to the member who is a continuous supporter and lifeline to the AAGC. This member understands that the AAGC and the work we do makes a difference in the industry, community and their career. While continuously serving for a minimum of 10 years, this individual has never stopped being involved and has maintained an active presence by being on the board, committees, volunteering with charities, and attending AAGC sponsored events. They have been committed and passionate about the purpose and mission of the AAGC.
