

House Call Educator of the Year Award

Nomination Form

Nomination Deadline: September 7, 2018.

The AAHCM House Call Educator of the Year Award recognizes an educator who mirrors the highest standards of excellence in teaching home care medicine, has made significant educational impacts on the academic advancement of students studying home care medicine, and has made long-standing contributions to the profession in the academic setting. (Must be an AAHCM member)

Award: The awardee will receive a one year AAHCM membership and will be recognized at the AAHCM Annual Conference with a personalized plaque. Award winners will be notified in September 2018.

Eligibility: Nominees and nominator(s) must be AAHCM members in good standing. Self-nominations are accepted.

Current members of the AAHCM Board of Directors or AAHCM Award Committee are not eligible to be nominated for this award.

Form Directions: Use the “Tab” feature to move from field to field and type your information into the shaded field.

Submission Directions

All nominations must include a copy of the nominee’s CV and 3 reference letters submitted to Val Good-Turney, Executive Administrator at vgoodturney@aaahcm.org by September 7, 2018 to be considered.

Supporting documentation such as formal commendations, citations or awards, newspaper or magazine articles, or other media-related profiles will be accepted, but shall serve only as evidence to support the nomination, and are NOT required.

An institution may not submit more than two award submissions per awards cycle. National institutions will be defined by state. Should the Awards Committee receive more than two award submissions from the same (state) institution, the burden of submission selection will fall on the submitting institution.
