Dee McGraw

Director of Education & Event Services
C4 Recovery Solutions

Dee K. McGraw has a BS in psychology from Vanderbilt University, an MSW from Grand Valley State University and over 27 years of experience in the substance abuse treatment & prevention field. Currently Ms. McGraw is the Director of Education & Event Services for C4 Recovery Solutions, a non-profit organization with world-wide projects. Her primary responsibility is the Conferencing Division, which encompasses the Cape Cod Symposium on Addictive Disorders, the West Coast Symposium on Addictive Disorders, the C.O.R.E conference and the Addiction Executives Industry Summit (AXIS). The national C4 conferences are widely regarded as among the best educational events in the industry. She is also consults with various organizations about conference design, management and full-service meeting planning.

Ms. McGraw began her career in substance abuse as a therapist. She then coordinated prevention efforts in a six-county area for the State of Michigan, subsequently, coordinating substance abuse training state wide. She has additional experience as a trainer/consultant for CSAP's Managed Care Section and as a reviewer of local, state and federal grant applications.
