CONFERENCE PROGRAM NOW READY

The program for the 104th AATSP Annual Conference is now available and can be downloaded as a PDF. With 750+ registered for our upcoming conference in San Juan, Puerto Rico, we invite you to browse the sessions, special events, and workshops! Late registration is open through Monday, June 20. Click here for additional information about the conference. Don’t forget to sign up for an excursion to explore La Isla de Encanto!
Platino Educa will screen one of its 330 Spanish-language films for the AATSP Annual Conference attendees—La delgada línea amarilla, a Mexican film produced by Guillermo del Toro and written and directed by Celso R. García. The film’s director will join the AATSP conference participants live via Zoom to discuss the film and answer your questions. Do you have questions about the film, the film making process, and the state of independent Spanish film industry? This is your chance to ask questions. Plan to attend this special event on Saturday, July 9 at 7:00 PM at the Caribe Hilton Hotel in the Las Olas room.
CHECK OUT RAFAEL OCASIO’S
FOLK STORIES FROM THE HILLS OF PUERTO RICO

Rafael Ocasio will present more on this topic during his session, “Personajes ’encantados’ en cuentos puertorriqueños de folklore oral,” at the 104th Annual Conference in San Juan, Puerto Rico on Sunday, July 10 at 3:30 PM at the Caribe Hilton Hotel in Conference Room 10.

“Rafael Ocasio’s unique bilingual anthology, Folk Stories from the Hills of Puerto Rico, is a treasure of delectable and profound tales collected at the beginning of the twentieth century. Moreover, Ocasio’s comprehensive introduction and notes about the history of these tales fills a gap in our understanding of the unusual contribution made by Puerto Rican peasants to the island’s cultural tradition. In short, this is a significant and remarkable book that will bring joy to readers.” —Jack Zipes, translator and editor of The Original Folk and Fairy Tales of the Brothers Grimm: The Complete First Edition

2022 AATSP POSTER CONTEST WINNERS
¡Muchísimas gracias a todos que participaron en el 2022 concurso de los carteles! This year’s contest marks the 50th anniversary of the AATSP Poster Contest! It is with great enthusiasm that we celebrate the culmination of this year’s contest and the efforts of hundreds of students all over the country. Nearly all active AATSP chapters offered the Poster Contest on the state or regional level to find the best representation of this year’s theme. Each student demonstrated incredible ingenuity and creativity in each work. The AATSP would like to thank everyone involved to make this year’s contest a delightful success!

SPANISH AND PORTUGUESE REVIEW
SEEKS VOLUNTEERS FOR PEER REVIEW

SPR is looking for graduate students who have a diverse set of research and teaching interests in the realm of Hispanic and Luso-Brazilian languages and culture, as well as varied skill sets, to volunteer as Peer Reviewers. Experience in Peer Review for an academic journal is highly valuable because it gives insight into the manuscript review process and helps develop academic writing. Click here to learn more, and click here to fill out the volunteer form.

NSE ANNOUNCEMENTS

The May NSE Shoutout is dedicated to the wonderful elementary and middle school students that have participated in both the 2022 National Spanish Challenge (NSC) and the NSC’s first annual Concurso Colorido! Congratulations to first-place winner Lily Bennett! Bennett is a student in Patricia Lutton’s class at Gerstell Academy in New Windsor, MD.

If you are a teacher who administered one of the National Spanish Exam’s contests this year, we want your feedback! Click here to take a quick survey sharing your experiences. The survey is open until Friday, June 10.
