TIME TO PREPARE FOR SALAMANCA

We are overjoyed to be returning to Salamanca, Spain for the 105th AATSP Annual Conference (June 26-29, 2023). Salamanca is a perfect place for us to acknowledge history and explore new horizons. This annual conference represents unparalleled collaboration with institutions and associations that will offer participants many choices by design. We aim to overload your senses and stimulate your mind.

We are in the final stages of editing the full program. We will post it approximately one month before the conference. There will also be an app for the program.

Before the conference, study the program. Plan. Make choices from over 400 sessions. Sometimes, there are as many as fifteen sessions being held simultaneously. With well over 1,000 language educators expected in Salamanca for three concurrent conferences, an abundance of sessions will meet the diverse needs of a wide variety of educators. The session topics show what is on the minds of AATSP members in 2023. To read my Welcome Message, please
¡Todos a una! Todos por um! Sheri Spaine Long, AATSP Executive Director

REMINDER: The last day to preregister online for the 105th AATSP Annual Conference is June 1, 2023. There will be limited onsite registration available. Preregister online now to avoid long lines.
