DEADLINE EXTENDED 2019 AATSP CONFERENCE CALL FOR PROPOSALS

We invite teachers of Spanish and Portuguese of all backgrounds and levels to share their work at our upcoming conference. Proposals are sought from seasoned professionals, early-term teachers, and those engaged in instructional support. The AATSP is proud to feature proposals from academics and practitioners on a wide variety of topics. We want more proposals from graduate students, dual language teachers, and community college instructors in general.

High school teachers of Spanish make up approximately 65% of our membership, so sessions from and for the high school level are crucial to our conference.

The deadline to submit a proposal is now November 11, 2018.
