

Una Aventura en los Adirondacks 2016

¡Qué fin de semana tan fenomenal!

Thank you to all the participating attendees of the teacher immersion weekend in Lake George for the 2016 year! Each and every one of you brought something unique and exciting to our weekend. There was a lot of eating, dancing, hiking, relaxing and of course a lot of Spanish spoken. The attendees this year were: Cynthia Flax, Myriam Santos, Gary and Merchy Barnard, Cristina Sabia, Jillian Yaeger, Jennifer Yates, Emily Cooper and Jennifer Cornell. Jillian Yaeger and Jennifer Yates get the award for traveling the furthest -from the Buffalo area. Thank you girls for joining us!!

Friday evening began with a scrumptious feast of "Pollo Campesino" provided by Cynthia Flax. Saturday we had a breakfast meeting at the Prospect Mountain Diner and then proceeded to our hike on beautiful Lake George. After the hike, we headed back to the hotel for a latin inspired lunch, including guacamole prepared in an authentic molcajete, provided by Jen Cornell. Following this, several people spent some time in Lake George village while others began to relax with the massage therapist that made a visit to our condo. Later, several people chose to watch the movie "El Orfanato". Saturday evening we enjoyed a dinner catered by the Barnsider Restaurant, followed by some latin music and dancing. Sunday morning we began the day with a relaxing yoga session with Emily Cooper and then we all gathered together for a sharing of ideas session.

At around 11:00 AM, everyone checked out and headed home.

Thank you so much to everyone for attending this event. I look forward to another exciting weekend in 2017!
